Tariff Talkers in the House.

THE SENATORIAL REPORT.

The Mills Bill Under Discussion —New Bills Proposed—Department Notes.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The House Committee on Elections submitted their report in the case of Frank vs. Glover, Ninth Congressional District of Missouri. It finds the contestee, Glover, entitled to the seat.

Bill were reported and placed upon the calendar for the erection of public buildings at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and increasing the appropriation for the purchase of a site for a public building at San Francisco.

A resolution providing for the investigation of the strike on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company was reported back and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mills, of Texas, asked unanimous consent that all the gentlemen might be allowed to print in the Record any remarks upon the subject of tariff, but Reed objected. Then the House went into a Committee of the Whole on the Tariff bill, the floor being accorded to McMillan, of Tennessee.

M'MILLAN'S SPEECH.

McMillan opened with a declaration that whoever advocated the present tariff favored tariff, not for revenue, but for surplus and tariff for trusts. Commenting on the surplus, he said: "We are drawing money from commerce and locking it up in the Treasury at such a rate that it is only a question of time when stringency will set in. We are robbing not only commerce of its life-blood, but the people of means of paying taxes to their Government. The annual surplus is only about $60,000,000, so that if all internal revenue laws were repealed it would leave a deficiency in our tax laws of $60,000,000. What is this to be raised from? Shall we reimpose the tax on tea and coffee? No; there is not a man who would retax coffee to untax whisky. Shall we increase the duties on woolen goods, rice or sugar? No; for the people would not, should not, tolerate any such legislation. In other words, reduce the tax on that without which man can live and prosper, or upon that which is essential to his comfort, and it narrows itself down to a contest between the drunkard's belly and the

POOR MAN'S BACK.

"In that fight I do not hesitate to say that I espouse the cause of the back. The present law taxes the poor man's articles highly and places a low rate on luxuries. The committee's bill is so framed that the tax will bear most heavily on luxuries and those things without which the people can live, rather than upon the necessaries of life."

McMillan declared protection to be worst to the merchant-marine, and that it crushed the sea-faring industry. Yet the gentlemen proposed to pay subsidies out of the Treasury, or, in other words, levy a tax on those who lived inland to make money for those engaged in the carrying trade. He turned his attention to the subject of trusts, and said:

"For years we have had these halls ringing with statements that bye and bye home competition would give us the lowest possible prices. The welkin has been made to ring with the declaration reiterated and reiterated, until even those who first proclaimed it have almost gotten to believe it. But look at

THE UNFORTUNATE SITUATION

And let the delusion be dispelled. While the Government has thrown up its tariff walls without, monopolies have joined hands within for the purpose of putting up prices and plundering the people through devices known as trusts, etc. We have a steel trust which cost the people of the country last year millions of dollars. I have no apprehensions as to who will be the victor in the battle about to be waged between legitimate taxation and that oppressive taxation which is invoked to aid trusts and make pooling profitable. The people waited long and patiently, but they are at last aroused. Their voice comes thundering through these halls demanding a reduction of the taxes. The procession for the relief of the taxpayer is moving. There are but two places about this procession—one after it, the other under it. Seek to-day whether you prefer to follow and aid it, or go down under it and be crushed by it."

During the course of his speech, McMillan declared that the revenue system, against which the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Kelly) inveighed, had not been inaugurated by the Democratic party.

Kelly admitted that the Democratic party had not enacted the law; but declared that it had made it necessary for the Republican party to provide the sinews for that war, and thus forced that party to resort to internal taxes and all the hardships resulting from them.

McMillan replied that the gentleman from Pennsylvania not only inaugurated the internal taxes of which he complained, but he put the tax on railroads and on the incomes and capital deposits of banks; but these latter had been removed, and those which the gentleman said worked hardships had never been removed. The gentleman had not done the very thing which he said the Democratic party has been responsible for not doing. He (McMillan) remembered the gentleman coming before the House and saying he favored the repeal of the system, but that his caucus determined otherwise and he bowed his neck to the yoke. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

Kelly—Has not that been done by your Democratic caucus? [Applause on the Republican side.]

McMillan—Does your party favor the total repeal of the internal revenue system?

Kelly—I speak for myself.

McMillan—Who will speak for your party? (Laughter.)

Kelly—Will you vote for such an amendment?

McMillan—I do not propose to vote for such an amendment.

Reed—Then what are you kicking about?

McMillan stated that $60,000,000 annually were received from internal taxes. If these taxes were removed, where does the gentlemen propose to get revenue? Does he propose to replace the tax on tea and coffee?

Kelly—No.

McMillan—You have not the courage to do it.

Kelly—Have you and your party the courage to tax tea and coffee?

McMillan—We do not propose to to take off the internal taxes.

"There are none of us so brave," was Reed's comment.

BURROWS SPEAKS.

Following McMillan, Burrows, of Michigan, was the next speaker. He said: Our tariff on imports was today confessedly protective in that it was levied, not for revenue only, but to encourage American industry and protect American labor. The Republican party insisted that the present protective system should not be disturbed, except in so far as might be necessary to correct its incongruities and harmonize its provisions. If Congress followed the lead of the President in his bold declaration, and secured a reduction by such a revision of the tariff as he proposed, leaving untouched, as he suggested, the internal revenue system, not only would the protective system be destroyed, but the Nation would be out on the

HIGHWAY OF FREE TRADE.

As the members were free traders or protectionists, the bill of the committee would be approved or condemned. The pending measure stood without parallel in the history of American legislation. The bill exposed to foreign assault many of our principal industries. The great wool growing industry of the country, only in the infancy of its development, was to be exposed to ruinous foreign competition, which would surely prove its destruction. The majority tried to delude the people into the belief that cheap wool meant cheap clothing. He admitted that wool would be cheaper when foreign rivals would be trying to destroy our industry, but when they had eliminated from our market three hundred million pounds of domestic wool we would find ourselves bound hand and foot, at the mercy of the foreign producer. What restraint would there be then on his power or cupidity. In the exuberance of the President's zeal for free trade he wanted the entire reduction secured by a revision of the tariff, but even the free traders of the Democratic party lacked courage to move on that line and occupy this advanced position.

THE PRESIDENT'S ASSERTION

That the duty on imports enhanced the prices of both foreign and domestic articles to the consumer had been re-echoed by every free-trader in the United States, and was hailed with delight by the free-traders of England. He challenged any man to name the product of a single well-established American industry that could not be bought cheaper to-day under the protective system than at any period under free trade. The difficulty with the President's theory was that he forgot that the price of a commodity did not depend upon the rate of duty, but upon the great law of

SUPPLY AND DEMAND.

Efforts were being made persistently to induce the American farmer to believe protective tariffs were hostile to his interests.

Burrows argued that the farmer was directly interested in maintaining the protective system and home market. Protection had enhanced the value of the land in the North; it would bring it to the South; it would bring the South an era of unexampled prosperity. He believed in protection, not for his State alone, but for his country. He believed in American industry; in American capital; in American labor, against the whole world.

"Let me warn you, gentlemen of the South," he continued, "that this measure bodes no good to you. It will arrest the investment of capital and bring your industries to a standstill. There is no portion of the country where the measure should meet with more united and determined opposition than in the South. Untoward circumstances have heretofore retarded her material progress, but the way is now open for her to march unimpeded to a splendid industrial future. The advance has already been sounded. He who does not respond to its inspiring summons will soon find himself without a following and without a party."

The committee then rose, and an attempt was made to have a night session, but it was defeated by the Republicans refusing to vote, leaving the House without a quorum. The House then adjourned.

The Senate.

The session of the Senate to-day was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendez, Rabbi of the Spanish and Portuguese congregation of New York. This is the second instance, probably, in the history of the Government, that a Jew has offered prayer in the Senate.

Among the bills reported from the committees and placed on the calendar was the following:

To provide for the erection of public buildings for postoffices in towns and cities where the postoffice receipts for the three years preceding have exceeded $3000 annually. The bill is recommended by the Postmaster-General.

Hale offered a resolution directing the Civil Service Commissioners to furnish lists of all persons certified for appointment to the Patent Office from the 4th of March, 1885, to March, 1888, and lists of all persons selected and appointed under such certificates.

A bill appropriating $200,000 for an arsenal at Columbia, Tenn., was passed.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the International Copyright bill, the question being on the amendment offered yesterday by Morrill, providing that newspapers and periodicals may copy articles from foreign newspapers and periodicals. After an interesting discussion the bill was laid aside without action, and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the establishment of a Bureau of Animal Industry.

WASHINGTON WIRINGS.

Doings by the Executive, Departments and Committees.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The total amount of bonds offered to the Government to-day is $1,642,000.

The following bids on bonds were accepted: $300,000 registered fours at $125 5/8; $300,000 registered fours at $125½.

CROOK AND BROOKE.

The President issued orders to-day assigning Major-General Crook to the command of the Department of the Missouri, and Brigader-General Brooke to the command of the Department of the Platte.

NEW POSTMASTERS.

The President has sent the following nominations of postmasters to the Senate: Lynn Boyd, National City, Cal.; Robert Tene, Orange, Cal.; Alexander C. Hickman, La Junta, Col.; James C. Outhouse, Lamar, Col.; Jos. Macey, Las Animas, Col.; Oliver S. Glenn, Bellevue, Idaho, and William T. Griffin, Moscow, Idaho.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate confirmed G. J. Denis for District Attorney for the Southern District of California, and C. M. Johnson, of Kentucky, agent for the Pima Indians, Arizona.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Secretary Fairchild Discountenances its Circulation.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary Fairchild appeared before the Senate Finance Committee to-day to present his views on a bill which has passed the House, providing for the issue of fractional currency. The Secretary strongly opposed the bill. He asserted that previous issues of fractional currency had cost, in expense of production and loss from destruction, as much as the entire face value of the average circulation maintained. He did not believe that the public convenience required a re-issue, nor that it would be popular. The fractional silver and postal note system met all the purposes which the fractional notes could serve except by a very large issue, extending to the remote parts of the country. It would also require years in its preparation. The cost and great loss incident to such issues and its manifest disadvantages which had led to its abandonment, were, to his mind, conclusive reasons against the renewal of such circulation.

Comptroller of the Currency Trenholm also appeared before the committee to suggest some minor modifications of the bill to reimburse the depositors in the Freedman's Bank.

AN IMPECUNIOUS ORDER.

Finances of the Knights of Labor in Bad Shape.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Needs of ready money above current expenses, which are now paid with difficulty, are the source of much concern to the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor. At a recent session of the board $10,000 was appropriated to start a printing office, but aside from the brown stone front headquarters, worth $60,000, the only available property is the Connellburg coal mine in Ohio. The sale of this has been authorized and the board expects to realize enough to get the printing office well under way and thereby lessen the enormous printing bill, which amounted to $40,000 last year.

The sale of the mine, however, will do but little to improve the condition of finances. A member of the Board admits that there is barely enough money in the treasury to pay current expenses and keep the machinery going until the payment of the July per capita tax. The quarterly returns are far from satisfactory, and unless money is received between this date and July, the force at the general offices will have to be further reduced. The expenses of the order are now very heavy. During the year 1885-6 the order gained nearly 60,000 members and the total expenses were $105,795. Under the present administration for 1886-7 the order lost 217,000 members and the total expenses were $491,683.

THE CHAMPION'S RETURN.

Mrs. Sullivan's Warlike Reception of Her Lord.

BOSTON, April 24.—The steamer Catalonia, loaded with John L. Sullivan, passed in by Hull early this morning.

Mrs. Sullivan, the champion's legal wife, intends to set herself right before the world. She is endeavoring to secure a warrant for the big fellow's arrest immediately on his arrival, on the charge of improper relations with Annie Livingstone, with whom he has been traveling during the past two years and acknowledged as his wife.

On arrival of the steamer the pugilist was taken aboard a tug boat and brought to the city and was driven up town amid the cheers and salutations of the hundreds who had congregated on the wharf.

"DUNKARD" CONFERENCE.

Place Selected for the German Baptist Annual Meeting.

STAUNTON, Va., April 24.—The committee to select a place for the annual Convention of the German Baptists, or "Dunkards," of the United States, has decided on Harrisonburg, Va. The Convention will be held on the first Tuesday after Whit Sunday. From 10,000 to 15,000 persons, representing every State and Territory in the Union, usually attend these annual gatherings.

Texas Republicans.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 24.—The Texas State Republican Convention to elect twelve delegates at large to the Chicago Convention, and nominate a State ticket, met here to-day. The Convention is the largest and most representative Republican body ever assembled in Texas. Fully 400 delegates were present, about equally divided in color. When the names of Blaine and Sherman were mentioned, vociferous cheering and applause followed, especially at the mention of the name of Blaine.

PACIFIC COAST.

Several Lives Lost in a Burning Hotel.

A DOTARD'S SECOND CHOICE.

Hokey Poky Gamers Raided—New Fruit Schedule—Coast Cullings.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—A Chronicle special from Butte, Montana, says: The Continental hotel was destroyed by fire early this morning. Jesse B. Gledding, a miner and former clerk of the hotel, perished in the flames. The body was burned to a crisp. Frank Lincoln, Assistant Postmaster of Butte, died from injuries a few hours after being rescued from the burning building. There were more than one hundred other guests, men, women and children in the hotel at the time the alarm was raised, who barely escaped with their lives, many sustaining slight injuries. The hotel was a two-story frame building and its destruction occupied only thirty minutes. The guests escaped in their night clothes, losing all their personal effects. The loss on the building and contents is $50,000; insurance, $5,000. The loss on Geo. W. Kirk's saloon was $3,000.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 24.—The Continental hotel at Butte, Montana, was burned to-day; loss, $35,000. Jennie M. Ledden was burned to death, and Frank Lincoln, Assistant Postmaster of Butte, died from injuries received at the fire.

THE YAQUI WAR.

Belligerent Savages Defying the Mexican Authorities.

NOGALES, A. T., April 24.—The Yaqui Indians at war with the Mexican Federal forces of Sonora, Mexico, are now fortifying different places and making a determined stand against the troops. A few days ago Major Encino and Lieutenant Valtavileal, with two columns of Federal troops, attacked the Indians in their strong fortified positions in the Zamalaquaca Mountains, near the town of Agua Verde. A desperate fight ensued, but the Federal forces, after a number of charges, routed the Indians from their fortifications, killing seventeen and wounding a large number. The Federal forces had one man killed and several wounded.

It had been expected by the government that the approach of warm weather would cause a cessation of hostilities on the part of the Yaquis, but they seem more determined on a vigorous warfare than ever before. The military officers who have been fighting them for several months believe the Indians are being aided in the matter of provisions and ammunition by Mexicans, more favorable to them than to the government.

HOKEY-POKEY RAIDED.

E. J. Baldwin Indicted by the Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Efforts have been made here recently to have the Grand Jury take some action against the "hokey-pokey" games which have been running openly in many resorts in the city ever since the police courts a short time ago declaired the ordinance prohibiting such games void. Among the places most frequented was a room in the Baldwin Hotel, which was fitted up recently for the purpose of "hokey-pokey" games. The Grand Jury yesterday returned ten indictments, which were placed on secret file, and a number of arrests were made last night, and all of the parties are supposed to be charged with "gaming" or "keeping gambling houses." Among those arrested was F. J. Baldwin, who was afterwards released on bail.

A DOTARD'S MARRIAGE.

His Ex-Convict Bride Attempts to Murder Him.

CHICO, April 24.—Thomas Treste, aged 72 years, some few weeks ago, having buried his wife, married Mollie Swofferd, who had just served five years in San Quentin. Treste is possessed of some property, which the woman wanted. Last night she got a revolver and attempted to take the old man's life. She told him she intended to kill him and burn his body with the house. Treste made his escape and had the woman arrested, charged with attempt to commit murder.

The Blooded Racers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—At the Spring meeting of the Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association to-day the following races were run. The weather was windy and the track in ordinary condition:

Running mile heats, best two in three—First heat, Dynamite won; Hermes second, Applause third; time, 1:44. Second heat: Dynamite won; Hermes second, Fusilade third; time, 1:43½.

Seven eighths mile, selling race—Bas Bleu won; Avondale second, Laura Gardner third; time, 1:30.

Vernal stake for two-year-olds; five-eights mile—Sonoma won; Shannon Rose second, Cassandra third; time, 1:03¼.

Pacific Derby for three-year-olds; mile and a half—Surinam won; Peel second, Canny Scot third; time, 2:38¼.

He was Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—An Examiner special from Licking, Mo., says: Thomas Smalley, a well-to-do merchant and hotel keeper, murdered his two children, aged seven, with an axe, and cut his own throat with a razor. All are dead. His wife escaped after a terrible struggle with her husband, who became suddenly insane over business matters.

A Newspaper Man's Case.

SACRAMENTO, April 24.—The Police Court occupied all of to-day in the trial of S. P. Maslin, clerk of the State Board of Examiners, charged with assault in having put out of the Governor's office a newspaper correspondent named Carson. It was shown that Carson had been caught in the act of inspecting a private book of Executive Clerk Douglass and had made public an extradition for a criminal though warned not to do so. The case will probably be concluded to-morrow.

Will Contest Decided.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The Sankey will contest was concluded this afternoon, the judge rendering a decision in favor of Carrie Sankey, the contestant. "The wills made by the deceased," said the Judge, "are evidence in themselves that he was crazy." From a telegram received by Carrie Sankey to-day she learned that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania had decided that she had been legally adopted by the deceased, and was entitled to inherit his estate in Pennsylvania. The deceased left property in this State, Pennsylvania and Illinois, of a total valuation of $150,000.

Coast Cullings.

Three-hundredths of an inch of rain fell yesterday at Marysville. Farmers are anxious for more.

Last evening a man at San Bernardino, named C. C. Mitchell, was attacked by a couple of footpads and robbed of his money.

P. B. Barrett, of Fall City, Shasta county, became insane, got away from his friends Sunday last, and drowned himself in his own well. He leaves a wife and four children.

The schooner Triumph, Captain Dan McLean, arrived last night at Victoria, B. C., from Halifax, making the passage in a remarkably short time, 128 days, the shortest on record.

The trial of Louise Hogan for the murder of Louise Derchow was concluded yesterday at San Francisco, and the jury, after a few moments of deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty.

A frame house belonging to Mrs. Westhall burned last night at Napa. The house was unoccupied, but was stored with furniture. Nothing was saved. Loss about $3,000; insured for $2,000.

A contract between Hon. M. P. O'Connor and an architect has been filed by which the latter is to build a sanitarium for the Sisters of Charity, near Agricultural Park, San Jose, at a cost of $60,000.

The Santa Clara Association of Congregational Churches began its proceedings at Santa Cruz yesterday, with Rev. W. N. Cross as moderator, and Rev. Rogers as scribe. The meeting will close to-day.

Sidney L. Marsh, who was killed at the Bay District track Saturday by the horse Don Jose, was buried yesterday. It has been suggested that the association give an extra day's racing proceeds to go to Marsh's widow.

Crop prospects in the vicinity of Hollister were never better. Grain is looking well and gives no evidence of suffering for lack of moisture. The late showers assure a heavy yield. The apricot crop in San Benito county promises to be very large.

In the suit of the United States against J. W. Humphreys and Moses Mock, to recover $90,000 as the value of lumber manufactured from pine trees cut on government land in Fresno county twenty years ago, the jury yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the defendants, in the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco.

The San Bernardino Central Railway, which is to be built from San Bernardino to San Diego, has asked for the right-of-way and depot grounds at San Bernardino, and the Board of Trade had a committee at work yesterday getting concessions.

The highest number of vessels ever seen in Commencement Bay at one time was in front of Tacoma yesterday. There were nineteen ocean sailing vessels in port. In addition to this, three ocean steamers and five local Sound steamers were at the docks.

The Pacific steamer Acapulco arrived at San Francisco from Panama yesterday, and was at once quarantined. She dropped eight smallpox cases at Acapulco. There is now no sickness on board, however. The Acapulco makes the eighth vessel in quarantine.

Yesterday a farmer named Jesse Graham gave himself up to the Sheriff at Fresno on hearing that a warrant had been issued for his arrest from parties in Santa Cruz, for the alleged killing of Dennis Bennett, 38 years of age. Graham says that he was tried at that time and acquitted.

E. S. Babcock, President of the Coronada Beach Company, who is in New York city, to-day wired the company that he had learned incidentally from the banking firm of Winslow, Lanier & Co. that the International Company of Mexico had secured $3,000,000 for the improvement of their land in Lower California.

A PRELATE WITHDRAWS.

A Distinguished Papist Resigns From the Church.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Churchman will, in its next issue, publish a long letter from Rev. Monsignor Leon Bouland, of this city, Honorary Private Chamberlain to His Holiness, Leo XIII, addressed to the Pope, withdrawing from the Catholic Church because he can not subscribe to the teachings of Syllabus and the doctrines proclaimed by the last Vatican Council, and because he cannot admit the pretentions of ultramonatism, claiming, as it does, absolute authority, not only in matters of religious, but also in matters scientific, philosophical, social and political.

The Mayor's Power Curtailed.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Board of Aldermen had a lively session today when a resolution curtailing the Mayor's power in displaying flags on the City Hall was offered for passage over Mayor Hewitt's veto. By the old ordinance the Mayor had unlimited power over flags. The resolution passed over his veto by a vote of 20 to 8, gives the Mayor power unless the aldermen otherwise direct. The whole trouble grew out of the Mayor's refusal to display the Irish flag on the City Hall on St. Patrick's Day.

THE BASEBALL FIELD.

The Philadelphias Again Beaten On Their Own Ground.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—The Boston team again defeated Philadelphia to-day by a fortunate bunching of hits, assisted materially by errors of the home club. In the first inning the visitors scored three times on base on balls fumbled by Mulvey and two baggers by Sutton and Hornung. In the sixth, a single by Sutton and out and wild throws by Schriver and Farrar netted two more, and singles by O'Rouke, Sowders and Kelly and a wild throw by Schriver produced two in the seventh. The Phillies scored their only tally in the eighth on singles by Wood, Andrews and Fogarty. Score—Philadelphia 1, Boston 7.

THE HOOSIERS LEFT AGAIN.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 24.—Chicago could not hit Boyle to-day, but with its usual luck won the game by an opportunity which Indianapolis offered Anson in the second inning. Anson was at second when Williamson hit a liner to Boyle that struck the latter on the breast and doubled him up. He recovered in a moment and threw the ball to Esterbrook in time to put the batter out, but then he immediately fell to the ground again and Esterbrook thinking time had been called threw the ball to the out-fielder. Anson grasped the situation and scored what proved to be the winning run. Score—Indianapolis 2, Chicago 3.

AT PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, April 24.—The Champions won to-day's game in the seventh inning by heavy batting, when two men were out. For the first six innings the great sluggers were completely at the mercy of Galvin, but in the seventh inning they solved his delivery. The Pittsburgs played strongly in the field, but after the fourth inning were unable to hit Conway. Score—Pittsburg 4, Detroit 6.

OTHER GAMES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The baseball game to-day was too poor to be worth an extended account. The score was—Washington 15, New York 19.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 24.—Kansas City 6, Louisville 15.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—St. Louis 3, Cincinnati 4.

BALTIMORE, April 24.—Baltimore 1, Brooklyn 3.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Athletics 8, Cleveland 5.

PERTINENT RAILROADERS.

Gould's Methods Questioned—A Comparison of Figures.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The committee of security-holders of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road have drawn up a lengthy answer to Jay Gould's letter. Stress is laid upon the sharp decline of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas securities, while no corresponding decline occurred in Missouri Pacific bonds, and the inference is drawn that Gould has not managed the affairs of the former as well as those of the latter road. While the expenditure of $2,000,000 for steel rails laid, referred to by Gould, should have reduced the cost of maintenance and operation, it increased from 58 per cent in 1880 to 72 per cent in 1887. The most important feature of the document is the assertion that the Missouri Pacific owed the Missouri, Kansas and Texas over $1,000,000 in December, 1886, and since then this has been absorbed and a debt of $800,000 created, which Gould claims is owed to the Missouri Pacific. The committee profess themselves at a loss to understand the rude statement that the Missouri Pacific made advances necessary to meet the current expenses, when official statements show that in recent years it had been in debt to the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. The committee refute the statement of Gould that the failure of the corn crop caused a shrinkage in the earnings, and are at a loss to understand why, under all these conditions, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas should fall into debt, while the Missouri Pacific merely reduced its dividends from seven to six per cent.

OUT OF THE RACE.

Gov. Hill's Name Hauled from the Masthead.

BOSTON, April 24.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says: Colonel J. B. Tomlinson, editor of the Omaha Democrat, has kept Governor David B. Hill's name at the head of his editorial column for some time as his candidate for the Presidency. Last night, having just returned from Albany, where he had a long conference with Governor Hill, he telegraphed his managing editor to take Hill's name down. The Governor told him, he says, that he was not only no candidate, but that he would willingly head the New York delegation for Cleveland at St. Louis.

Republicans at the Hub.

BOSTON, April 24.—There was a vast gathering of politicians here tonight, to attend the State Republican Convention to-morrow. The permanent officers have already been selected. It is rumored that Blaine's name will be eulogized. The platform will endorse a National temperance plank. The delegates to the Chicago Convention, will, it is concluded, be Senator Hoar, Henry S. Hyde, Alanson W. Beard and Dr. Fred L. Burdan.

Yellow Fever Reports Denied.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 24.—The reports of yellow fever at Plant City prove to be exaggerated. The disease undoubtedly existed there all last summer, but in a mild form. The village has a population of 300. Since last October there have been ninety cases of illness and only twelve deaths. All unacclimated persons have moved away, and energetic measures are being adopted to stamp out the disease.

A Negro Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 24.—Hardy Posey, colored, was lynched last night at Bessemer for an attempt to rape a girl 15 years of age. A special train has just arrived from Bessemer for arms and assistance. It is stated the town is surrounded by armed negroes, who threaten to burn the houses and kill the citizens to avenge the lynching of Posey.

OTHER LANDS.

Emperor Fritz Still Alive and Hopeful.

VICTORIA'S FRIENDLY VISIT.

North German Gazette Pays Her Majesty a Handsome Tribute.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

BERLIN, April 24.—This morning the bulletin says: The Emperor passed a very good night. His fever is quite insignificant and his general condition is somewhat better.

HE RECEIVES THE QUEEN.

BERLIN, April 24.—The Emperor rose to receive Queen Victoria and cordially welcomed her. He afterwards withdrew to his own apartments. The Queen, accompanied by the Empress, will visit and take tea with the Dowager Empress Augusta this afternoon. Her Majesty will afterwards pay a visit to the castle where the Emperor, when he was Crown Prince, resided. To-morrow the staff of the British Embassy will be presented to the Queen. Later the Queen will receive Prince Bismarck.

FAVORABLE SYMPTOMS.

BERLIN, April 24.—The North German Gazette says that the Emperor's condition shows clearly a perceptible tendency toward slowly progressive improvement. His fever has diminished regularly during the last few days. His temperature to-day was thirty-eight degrees Celsius. His physicians hope for further abatement in view of recent symptoms developed, and they find especial reason for hope in the return of his appetite. The fact that the Emperor has hitherto taken a fair quantity of nourishment is solely due to the urgent recommendation of his physicians. Good results followed the observance of their advice. His Majesty's present disposition to take solid food is a satisfactory symptom. Dr. Kruse will leave the castle for the present.

A CHANGE FOR THE WORSE.

BERLIN, April 24.—An afternoon bulletin says: "The Emperor's condition is changed for the worse, and creates alarm.

MORE ENCOURAGING.

BERLIN, April 24.—A bulletin issued at 7:30 P. M. says the Emperor became feverish during the afternoon, but the fever abated somewhat toward evening, and his general condition is comparatively satisfactory. Dr. Mackenzie has declared his intention of prosecuting the journals which caluminated him.

VICTORIA'S VISIT.

The Queen's Arrival at Berlin—Received by the Emperor.

BERLIN, April 24.—Queen Victoria arrived at Charlottenberg at 9 o'clock this morning. The Empress, Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Saxe-Meiningen received her at the depot. Prince Henry and his sisters, the Princesses Victoria, Sophia and Margaret, Sir Edward Malet, the British Ambassador at Berlin, the Duke of Rutland, and the Burgomaster and Municipal Council of Berlin were also present. The greetings between Queen Victoria and the royal family of Germany were warm. The Crown Prince conducted the Queen to an open carriage drawn by four horses, which she entered, and with the Empress beside her was driven to the castle.

Crowds of people lined the route and cheered enthusiastically as the carriage passed. The Queen paid a visit to the Emperor shortly after her arrival at the castle. The doctors feared that the meeting would excite the Emperor and probably upset him, but their fears were groundless. The Emperor seemed rather bright after the interview and his temperature was more normal.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

The North German Gazette, referring to the visit of the Queen of England, says: "Her Majesty will be welcomed by the whole population of Germany, and, above all, by the inhabitants of Berlin, with the veneration and sympathy so justly due to one who has for so many years ruled a friendly state, and who is the mother of our Empress. All German hearts will thankfully accept, as a token of the Queen's deep sympathy for the fate of our reigning house, the fact that she comes to the sick bed of our beloved Emperor and personally shares the deep affliction and deep anxiety with which we are filled to-day. May she be enabled to bring comfort and hope, and when she departs from Germany to take with her the assurance that the sympathy she has displayed will always be kept in grateful remembrance here!"

HOW SHE SPENT THE DAY.

BERLIN, April 24.—Queen Victoria and the Empress drove out with the Prince and Princess of Saxe Meiningen. The streets were crowded and the Queen and Empress were greeted with enthusiasm. The Queen made three visits to the sick room of the Emperor, who is keeping his bed until he gets stronger. He has been in excellent spirits and had several refreshing naps. The meeting between Queen Victoria and her daughter, the Empress, this morning, was very touching. They embraced and kissed each other repeatedly. The Queen went immediately to see the Emperor and was astonished and delighted to find him looking better than she expected. She will depart to-morrow unless the Emperor should have a relapse.

Tariff Talkers in the House.

THE SENATORIAL REPORT.

The Mills Bill Under Discussion —New Bills Proposed—Department Notes.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The House Committee on Elections submitted their report in the case of Frank vs. Glover, Ninth Congressional District of Missouri. It finds the contestee, Glover, entitled to the seat.

Bill were reported and placed upon the calendar for the erection of public buildings at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and increasing the appropriation for the purchase of a site for a public building at San Francisco.

A resolution providing for the investigation of the strike on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company was reported back and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mills, of Texas, asked unanimous consent that all the gentlemen might be allowed to print in the Record any remarks upon the subject of tariff, but Reed objected. Then the House went into a Committee of the Whole on the Tariff bill, the floor being accorded to McMillan, of Tennessee.

M'MILLAN'S SPEECH.

McMillan opened with a declaration that whoever advocated the present tariff favored tariff, not for revenue, but for surplus and tariff for trusts. Commenting on the surplus, he said: "We are drawing money from commerce and locking it up in the Treasury at such a rate that it is only a question of time when stringency will set in. We are robbing not only commerce of its life-blood, but the people of means of paying taxes to their Government. The annual surplus is only about $60,000,000, so that if all internal revenue laws were repealed it would leave a deficiency in our tax laws of $60,000,000. What is this to be raised from? Shall we reimpose the tax on tea and coffee? No; there is not a man who would retax coffee to untax whisky. Shall we increase the duties on woolen goods, rice or sugar? No; for the people would not, should not, tolerate any such legislation. In other words, reduce the tax on that without which man can live and prosper, or upon that which is essential to his comfort, and it narrows itself down to a contest between the drunkard's belly and the

POOR MAN'S BACK.

"In that fight I do not hesitate to say that I espouse the cause of the back. The present law taxes the poor man's articles highly and places a low rate on luxuries. The committee's bill is so framed that the tax will bear most heavily on luxuries and those things without which the people can live, rather than upon the necessaries of life."

McMillan declared protection to be worst to the merchant-marine, and that it crushed the sea-faring industry. Yet the gentlemen proposed to pay subsidies out of the Treasury, or, in other words, levy a tax on those who lived inland to make money for those engaged in the carrying trade. He turned his attention to the subject of trusts, and said:

"For years we have had these bells ringing with statements that bye and bye home competition would give us the lowest possible prices. The welkin has been made to ring with the declaration reiterated and reiterated, until even those who first proclaimed it have almost gotten to believe it. But look at

And let the delusion be dispelled. While the Government has thrown up its tariff walls without, monopolies have joined hands within for the purpose of putting up prices and plundering the people through devices known as trusts, etc. We have a steel trust which cost the people of the country last year millions of dollars. I have no apprehensions as to who will be the victor in the battle about to be waged between legitimate taxation and that oppressive taxation which is invoked to aid trusts and make pooling profitable. The people waited long and patiently, but they are at last aroused. Their voice comes thundering through these halls demanding a reduction of the taxes. The procession for the relief of the taxpayer is moving. There are but two places about this procession—one after it, the other under it. Seek to-day whether you prefer to follow and aid it, or go down under it and be crushed by it."

During the course of his speech, McMillan declared that the revenue system, against which the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Kelly) inveighed, had not been inaugurated by the Democratic party.

Kelly admitted that the Democratic party had not enacted the law; but declared that it had made it necessary for the Republican party to provide the sinews for that war, and thus forced that party to resort to internal taxes and all the hardships resulting from them.

McMillan replied that the gentleman from Pennsylvania not only inaugurated the internal taxes of which he complained, but he put the tax on railroads and on the incomes and capital deposits of banks; but these latter had been removed, and those which the gentleman said worked hardships had never been removed. The gentleman had not done the very thing which he said the Democratic party has been responsible for not doing. He (McMillan) remembered the gentleman coming before the House and saying he favored the repeal of the system, but that his caucus determined otherwise and he bowed his neck to the yoke. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

Kelly—Has not that been done by your Democratic caucus? [Applause on the Republican side.]

McMillan—Does your party favor the total repeal of the internal revenue system?

Kelly—I speak for myself.

McMillan—Who will speak for your party? (Laughter.)

Kelly—Will you vote for such an amendment?

McMillan—I do not propose to vote for such an amendment.

Reed—Then what are you kicking about?

McMillan stated that $60,000,000 annually were received from internal taxes. If these taxes were removed, where does the gentlemen propose to get revenue? Does he propose to replace the tax on tea and coffee?

Kelly—No.

McMillan—You have not the courage to do it.

Kelly—Have you and your party the courage to tax tea and coffee?

McMillan—We do not propose to to take off the internal taxes.

"There are none of us so brave," was Reed's comment.

BURROWS SPEAKS.

Following McMillan, Burrows, of Michigan, was the next speaker. He said: Our tariff on imports was today confessedly protective in that it was levied, not for revenue only, but to encourage American industry and protect American labor. The Republican party insisted that the present protective system should not be disturbed, except in so far as might be necessary to correct its incongruities and harmonize its provisions. If Congress followed the lead of the President in his bold declaration, and secured a reduction by such a revision of the tariff as he proposed, leaving untouched, as he suggested, the internal revenue system, not only would the protective system be destroyed, but the Nation would be out on the

HIGHWAY OF FREE TRADE.

As the members were free traders or protectionists, the bill of the committee would be approved or condemned. The pending measure stood without parallel in the history of American legislation. The bill exposed to foreign assault many of our principal industries. The great wool growing industry of the country, only in the infancy of its development, was to be exposed to ruinous foreign competition, which would surely prove its destruction. The majority tried to delude the people into the belief that cheap wool meant cheap clothing. He admitted that wool would be cheaper when foreign rivals would be trying to destroy our industry, but when they had eliminated from our market three hundred million pounds of domestic wool we would find ourselves bound hand and foot, at the mercy of the foreign producer. What restraint would there be then on his power or cupidity. In the exuberance of the President's zeal for free trade he wanted the entire reduction secured by a revision of the tariff, but even the free traders of the Democratic party lacked courage to move on that line and occupy this advanced position.

THE PRESIDENT'S ASSERTION

That the duty on imports enhanced the prices of both foreign and domestic articles to the consumer had been re-echoed by every free-trader in the United States, and was hailed with delight by the free-traders of England. He challenged any man to name the product of a single well-established American industry that could not be bought cheaper to-day under the protective system than at any period under free trade. The difficulty with the President's theory was that he forgot that the price of a commodity did not depend upon the rate of duty, but upon the great law of

SUPPLY AND DEMAND.

Efforts were being made persistently to induce the American farmer to believe protective tariffs were hostile to his interests.

Burrows argued that the farmer was directly interested in maintaining the protective system and home market. Protection had enhanced the value of the land in the North; it would bring it to the South; it would bring the South an era of unexampled prosperity. He believed in protection, not for his State alone, but for his country. He believed in American industry; in American capital; in American labor, against the whole world.

"Let me warn you, gentlemen of the South," he continued, "that this measure bodes no good to you. It will arrest the investment of capital and bring your industries to a standstill. There is no portion of the country where the measure should meet with more united and determined opposition than in the South. Untoward circumstances have heretofore retarded her material progress, but the way is now open for her to march unimpeded to a splendid industrial future. The advance has already been sounded. He who does not respond to its inspiring summons will soon find himself without a following and without a party."

The committee then rose, and an attempt was made to have a night session, but it was defeated by the Republicans refusing to vote, leaving the House without a quorum. The House then adjourned.

The Senate.

The session of the Senate to-day was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendez, Rabbi of the Spanish and Portuguese congregation of New York. This is the second instance, probably, in the history of the Government, that a Jew has offered prayer in the Senate.

Among the bills reported from the committees and placed on the calendar was the following:

To provide for the erection of public buildings for postoffices in towns and cities where the postoffice receipts for the three years preceding have exceeded $3000 annually. The bill is recommended by the Postmaster-General.

Hale offered a resolution directing the Civil Service Commissioners to furnish lists of all persons certified for appointment to the Patent Office from the 4th of March, 1885, to March, 1888, and lists of all persons selected and appointed under such certificates.

A bill appropriating $200,000 for an arsenal at Columbia, Tenn., was passed.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the International Copyright bill, the question being on the amendment offered yesterday by Morrill, providing that newspapers and periodicals may copy articles from foreign newspapers and periodicals. After an interesting discussion the bill was laid aside without action, and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the establishment of a Bureau of Animal Industry.

WASHINGTON WIRINGS.

Doings by the Executive, Departments and Committees.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The total amount of bonds offered to the Government to-day is $1,642,000.

The following bids on bonds were accepted: $300,000 registered fours at $125 5/16; $300,000 registered fours at $125½.

CROOK AND BROOKE.

The President issued orders to-day assigning Major-General Crook to the command of the Department of the Missouri, and Brigader-General Brooke to the command of the Department of the Platte.

NEW POSTMASTERS.

The President has sent the following nominations of postmasters to the Senate: Lynn Boyd, National City, Cal.; Robert Tene, Orange, Cal.; Alexander C. Hickman, La Junta, Col.; James C. Outhouse, Lamar, Col.; Jos. Macey, Las Animas, Col.; Oliver S. Glenn, Bellevue, Idaho, and William T. Griffin, Moscow, Idaho.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate confirmed G. J. Denis for District Attorney for the Southern District of California, and C. M. Johnson, of Kentucky, agent for the Pima Indians, Arizona.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Secretary Fairchild Discountenances its Circulation.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary Fairchild appeared before the Senate Finance Committee to-day to present his views on a bill which has passed the House, providing for the issue of fractional currency. The Secretary strongly opposed the bill. He asserted that previous issues of fractional currency had cost, in expense of production and loss from destruction, as much as the entire face value of the average circulation maintained. He did not believe that the public convenience required a re-issue, nor that it would be popular. The fractional silver and postal note system met all the purposes which the fractional notes could serve except by a very large issue, extending to the remote parts of the country. It would also require years in its preparation. The cost and great loss incident to such issues and its manifest disadvantages which had led to its abandonment, were, to his mind, conclusive reasons against the renewal of such circulation.

Comptroller of the Currency Trenholm also appeared before the committee to suggest some minor modifications of the bill to reimburse the depositors in the Freedman's Bank.

AN IMPECUNIOUS ORDER.

Finances of the Knights of Labor in Bad Shape.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Needs of ready money above current expenses, which are now paid with difficulty, are the source of much concern to the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor. At a recent session of the board $10,000 was appropriated to start a printing office, but aside from the brown stone front headquarters, worth $60,000, the only available property is the Connellburg coal mine in Ohio. The sale of this has been authorized and the board expects to realize enough to get the printing office well under way and thereby lessen the enormous printing bill, which amounted to $40,000 last year.

The sale of the mine, however, will do but little to improve the condition of finances. A member of the Board admits that there is barely enough money in the treasury to pay current expenses and keep the machinery going until the payment of the July per capita tax. The quarterly returns are far from satisfactory, and unless money is received between this date and July, the force at the general offices will have to be further reduced. The expenses of the order are now very heavy. During the year 1885-6 the order gained nearly 60,000 members and the total expenses were $105,795. Under the present administration for 1886-7 the order lost 217,000 members and the total expenses were $491,683.

THE CHAMPION'S RETURN.

Mrs. Sullivan's Warlike Reception of Her Lord.

BOSTON, April 24.—The steamer Catalonia, loaded with John L. Sullivan, passed in by Hull early this morning.

Mrs. Sullivan, the champion's legal wife, intends to set herself right before the world. She is endeavoring to secure a warrant for the big fellow's arrest immediately on his arrival, on the charge of improper relations with Annie Livingstone, with whom he has been traveling during the past two years and acknowledged as his wife.

On arrival of the steamer the pugilist was taken aboard a tug boat and brought to the city and was driven up town amid the cheers and salutations of the hundreds who had congregated on the wharf.

"DUNKARD" CONFERENCE.

Place Selected for the German Baptist Annual Meeting.

STAUNTON, Va., April 24.—The committee to select a place for the annual Convention of the German Baptists, or "Dunkards," of the United States, has decided on Harrisonburg, Va. The Convention will be held on the first Tuesday after Whit Sunday. From 10,000 to 15,000 persons, representing every State and Territory in the Union, usually attend these annual gatherings.

Texas Republicans.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 24.—The Texas State Republican Convention to elect twelve delegates at large to the Chicago Convention, and nominate a State ticket, met here to-day. The Convention is the largest and most representative Republican body ever assembled in Texas. Fully 400 delegates were present, about equally divided in color. When the names of Blaine and Sherman were mentioned, vociferous cheering and applause followed, especially at the mention of the name of Blaine.

PACIFIC COAST.

Several Lives Lost in a Burning Hotel.

A DOTARD'S SECOND CHOICE.

Hokey Poky Gamers Raided—New Fruit Schedule—Coast Cullings.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—A Chronicle special from Butte, Montana, says: The Continental hotel was destroyed by fire early this morning. Jesse B. Gledding, a miner and former clerk of the hotel, perished in the flames. The body was burned to a crisp. Frank Lincoln, Assistant Postmaster of Butte, died from injuries a few hours after being rescued from the burning building. There were more than one hundred other guests, men, women and children in the hotel at the time the alarm was raised, who barely escaped with their lives, many sustaining slight injuries. The hotel was a two-story frame building and its destruction occupied only thirty minutes. The guests escaped in their night clothes, losing all their personal effects. The loss on the building and contents is $50,000; insurance, $5,000. The loss on Geo. W. Kirk's saloon was $3,000.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 24.—The Continental hotel at Butte, Montana, was burned to-day; loss, $35,000. Jennie M. Ledden was burned to death, and Frank Lincoln, Assistant Postmaster of Butte, died from injuries received at the fire.

THE YAQUI WAR.

Belligerent Savages Defying the Mexican Authorities.

NOGALES, A. T., April 24.—The Yaqui Indians at war with the Mexican Federal forces of Sonora, Mexico, are now fortifying different places and making a determined stand against the troops. A few days ago Major Encino and Lieutenant Valtavileal, with two columns of Federal troops, attacked the Indians in their strong fortified positions in the Zamalaquaca Mountains, near the town of Agua Verde. A desperate fight ensued, but the Federal forces, after a number of charges, routed the Indians from their fortifications, killing seventeen and wounding a large number. The Federal forces had one man killed and several wounded.

It had been expected by the government that the approach of warm weather would cause a cessation of hostilities on the part of the Yaquis, but they seem more determined on a vigorous warfare than ever before. The military officers who have been fighting them for several months believe the Indians are being aided in the matter of provisions and ammunition by Mexicans, more favorable to them than to the government.

HOKEY-POKEY RAIDED.

E. J. Baldwin Indicted by the Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Efforts have been made here recently to have the Grand Jury take some action against the "hokey-pokey" games which have been running openly in many resorts in the city ever since the police courts a short time ago declared the ordinance prohibiting such games void. Among the places most frequented was a room in the Baldwin Hotel, which was fitted up recently for the purpose of "hokey-pokey" games. The Grand Jury yesterday returned ten indictments, which were placed on secret file, and a number of arrests were made last night, and all of the parties are supposed to be charged with "gaming" or "keeping gambling houses." Among those arrested was F. J. Baldwin, who was afterwards released on bail.

A DOTARD'S MARRIAGE.

His Ex-Convict Bride Attempts to Murder Him.

CHICO, April 24.—Thomas Treste, aged 72 years, some few weeks ago, having buried his wife, married Mollie Swofferd, who had just served five years in San Quentin. Treste is possessed of some property, which the woman wanted. Last night she got a revolver and attempted to take the old man's life. She told him she intended to kill him and burn his body with the house. Treste made his escape and had the woman arrested, charged with attempt to commit murder.

The Blooded Racers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—At the Spring meeting of the Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association to-day the following races were run. The weather was windy and the track in ordinary condition:

Running mile heats, best two in three—First heat, Dynamite won; Hermes second, Applause third; time, 1:44. Second heat: Dynamite won; Hermes second, Fusilade third; time, 1:43½.

Seven eighths mile, selling race—Bas Bleu won; Avondale second, Laura Gardner third; time, 1:30.

Pacific Derby for three-year-olds; mile and a half—Surinam won; Peel second, Canny Scot third; time, 2:38¼.

He was Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—An Examiner special from Licking, Mo., says: Thomas Smalley, a well-to-do merchant and hotel keeper, murdered his two children, aged seven, with an axe, and cut his own throat with a razor. All are dead. His wife escaped after a terrible struggle with her husband, who became suddenly insane over business matters.

A Newspaper Man's Case.

SACRAMENTO, April 24.—The Police Court occupied all of to-day in the trial of S. P. Maslin, clerk of the State Board of Examiners, charged with assault in having put out of the Governor's office a newspaper correspondent named Carson. It was shown that Carson had been caught in the act of inspecting a private book of Executive Clerk Douglass and had made public an extradition for a criminal though warned not to do so. The case will probably be concluded to-morrow.

Will Contest Decided.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The Sankey will contest was concluded this afternoon, the judge rendering a decision in favor of Carrie Sankey, the contestant. "The wills made by the deceased," said the Judge, "are evidence in themselves that he was crazy." From a telegram received by Carrie Sankey to-day she learned that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania had decided that she had been legally adopted by the deceased, and was entitled to inherit his estate in Pennsylvania. The deceased left property in this State, Pennsylvania and Illinois, of a total valuation of $150,000.

Coast Cullings.

Three-hundredths of an inch of rain fell yesterday at Marysville. Farmers are anxious for more.

Last evening a man at San Bernardino, named C. C. Mitchell, was attacked by a couple of footpads and robbed of his money.

P. B. Barrett, of Fall City, Shasta county, became insane, got away from his friends Sunday last, and drowned himself in his own well. He leaves a wife and four children.

The schooner Triumph, Captain Dan McLean, arrived last night at Victoria, B. C., from Halifax, making the passage in a remarkably short time, 128 days, the shortest on record.

The trial of Louise Hogan for the murder of Louise Derchow was concluded yesterday at San Francisco, and the jury, after a few moments of deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty.

A frame house belonging to Mrs. Westhall burned last night at Napa. The house was unoccupied, but was stored with furniture. Nothing was saved. Loss about $3,000; insured for $2,000.

A contract between Hon. M. P. O'Connor and an architect has been filed by which the latter is to build a sanitarium for the Sisters of Charity, near Agricultural Park, San Jose, at a cost of $60,000.

The Santa Clara Association of Congregational Churches began its proceedings at Santa Cruz yesterday, with Rev. W. N. Cross as moderator, and Rev. Rogers as scribe. The meeting will close to-day.

Sidney L. Marsh, who was killed at the Bay District track Saturday by the horse Don Jose, was buried yesterday. It has been suggested that the association give an extra day's racing proceeds to go to Marsh's widow.

Crop prospects in the vicinity of Hollister were never better. Grain is looking well and gives no evidence of suffering for lack of moisture. The late showers assure a heavy yield. The apricot crop in San Benito county promises to be very large.

In the suit of the United States against J. W. Humphreys and Moses Mock, to recover $90,000 as the value of lumber manufactured from pine trees cut on government land in Fresno county twenty years ago, the jury yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the defendants, in the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco.

The San Bernardino Central Railway, which is to be built from San Bernardino to San Diego, has asked for the right-of-way and depot grounds at San Bernardino, and the Board of Trade had a committee at work yesterday getting concessions.

The highest number of vessels ever seen in Commencement Bay at one time was in front of Tacoma yesterday. There were nineteen ocean sailing vessels in port. In addition to this, three ocean steamers and five local Sound steamers were at the docks.

The Pacific steamer Acapulco arrived at San Francisco from Panama yesterday, and was at once quarantined. She dropped eight smallpox cases at Acapulco. There is now no sickness on board, however. The Acapulco makes the eighth vessel in quarantine.

Yesterday a farmer named Jesse Graham gave himself up to the Sheriff at Fresno on hearing that a warrant had been issued for his arrest from parties in Santa Cruz, for the alleged killing of Dennis Bennett, 38 years of age. Graham says that he was tried at that time and acquitted.

Babcock, President of the Coronada Beach Company, who is in New York city, to-day wired the company that he had learned incidentally from the banking firm of Winslow, Lanier & Co. that the International Company of Mexico had secured $3,000,000 for the improvement of their land in Lower California.

A PRELATE WITHDRAWS.

A Distinguished Papist Resigns From the Church.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Churchman will, in its next issue, publish a long letter from Rev. Monsignor Leon Bouland, of this city, Honorary Private Chamberlain to His Holiness, Leo XIII, addressed to the Pope, withdrawing from the Catholic Church because he can not subscribe to the teachings of Syllabus and the doctrines proclaimed by the last Vatican Council, and because he cannot admit the pretentions of ultramonatism, claiming, as it does, absolute authority, not only in matters of religious, but also in matters scientific, philosophical, social and political.

The Mayor's Power Curtailed.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Board of Aldermen had a lively session to-day when a resolution curtailing the Mayor's power in displaying flags on the City Hall was offered for passage over Mayor Hewitt's veto. By the old ordinance the Mayor had unlimited power over flags. The resolution passed over his veto by a vote of 20 to 8, gives the Mayor power unless the aldermen otherwise direct. The whole trouble grew out of the Mayor's refusal to display the Irish flag on the City Hall on St. Patrick's Day.

THE BASEBALL FIELD.

The Philadelphias Again Beaten On Their Own Ground.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—The Boston team again defeated Philadelphia to-day by a fortunate bunching of hits, assisted materially by errors of the home club. In the first inning the visitors scored three times on base on balls fumbled by Mulvey and two baggers by Sutton and Hornung. In the sixth, a single by Sutton and out and wild throws by Schriver and Farrar netted two more, and singles by O'Rouke, Sowders and Kelly and a wild throw by Schriver produced two in the seventh. The Phillies scored their only tally in the eighth on singles by Wood, Andrews and Fogarty. Score—Philadelphia 1, Boston 7.

THE HOOSIERS LEFT AGAIN.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 24.—Chicago could not hit Boyle to-day, but with its usual luck won the game by an opportunity which Indianapolis offered Anson in the second inning. Anson was at second when Williamson hit a liner to Boyle that struck the latter on the breast and doubled him up. He recovered in a moment and threw the ball to Esterbrook in time to put the batter out, but then he immediately fell to the ground again and Esterbrook thinking time had been called threw the ball to the out-fielder. Anson grasped the situation and scored what proved to be the winning run. Score—Indianapolis 2, Chicago 3.

AT PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, April 24.—The Champions won to-day's game in the seventh inning by heavy batting, when two men were out. For the first six innings the great sluggers were completely at the mercy of Galvin, but in the seventh inning they solved his delivery. The Pittsburgs played strongly in the field, but after the fourth inning were unable to hit Conway. Score—Pittsburg 4, Detroit 6.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—St. Louis 3, Cincinnati 4.

BALTIMORE, April 24.—Baltimore 1, Brooklyn 3.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Athletics 8, Cleveland 5.

PERTINENT RAILROADERS.

Gould's Methods Questioned—A Comparison of Figures.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The committee of security-holders of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road have drawn up a lengthy answer to Jay Gould's letter. Stress is laid upon the sharp decline of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas securities, while no corresponding decline occurred in Missouri Pacific bonds, and the inference is drawn that Gould has not managed the affairs of the former as well as those of the latter road. While the expenditure of $2,000,000 for steel rails laid, referred to by Gould, should have reduced the cost of maintenance and operation, it increased from 58 per cent in 1880 to 72 per cent in 1887. The most important feature of the document is the assertion that the Missouri Pacific owed the Missouri, Kansas and Texas over $1,000,000 in December, 1886, and since then this has been absorbed and a debt of $800,000 created, which Gould claims is owed to the Missouri Pacific. The committee profess themselves at a loss to understand the rude statement that the Missouri Pacific made advances necessary to meet the current expenses, when official statements show that in recent years it had been in debt to the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. The committee refute the statement of Gould that the failure of the corn crop caused a shrinkage in the earnings, and are at a loss to understand why, under all these conditions, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas should fall into debt, while the Missouri Pacific merely reduced its dividends from seven to six per cent.

OUT OF THE RACE.

Gov. Hill's Name Hauled from the Masthead.

BOSTON, April 24.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says: Colonel J. B. Tomlinson, editor of the Omaha Democrat, has kept Governor David B. Hill's name at the head of his editorial column for some time as his candidate for the Presidency. Last night, having just returned from Albany, where he had a long conference with Governor Hill, he telegraphed his managing editor to take Hill's name down. The Governor told him, he says, that he was not only no candidate, but that he would willingly head the New York delegation for Cleveland at St. Louis.

Republicans at the Hub.

BOSTON, April 24.—There was a vast gathering of politicians here to-night, to attend the State Republican Convention to-morrow. The permanent officers have already been selected. It is rumored that Blaine's name will be eulogized. The platform will endorse a National temperance plank. The delegates to the Chicago Convention, will, it is concluded, be Senator Hoar, Henry S. Hyde, Alanson W. Beard and Dr. Fred L. Burdan.

Yellow Fever Reports Denied.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 24.—The reports of yellow fever at Plant City prove to be exaggerated. The disease undoubtedly existed there all last summer, but in a mild form. The village has a population of 300. Since last October there have been ninety cases of illness and only twelve deaths. All unacclimated persons have moved away, and energetic measures are being adopted to stamp out the disease.

A Negro Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 24.—Hardy Posey, colored, was lynched last night at Bessemer for an attempt to rape a girl 15 years of age. A special train has just arrived from Bessemer for arms and assistance. It is stated the town is surrounded by armed negroes, who threaten to burn the houses and kill the citizens to avenge the lynching of Posey.

VICTORIA'S FRIENDLY VISIT.

North German Gazette Pays Her Majesty a Handsome Tribute.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

BERLIN, April 24.—This morning the bulletin says: The Emperor passed a very good night. His fever is quite insignificant and his general condition is somewhat better.

HE RECEIVES THE QUEEN.

BERLIN, April 24.—The Emperor rose to receive Queen Victoria and cordially welcomed her. He afterwards withdrew to his own apartments. The Queen, accompanied by the Empress, will visit and take tea with the Dowager Empress Augusta this afternoon. Her Majesty will afterwards pay a visit to the castle where the Emperor, when he was Crown Prince, resided. To-morrow the staff of the British Embassy will be presented to the Queen. Later the Queen will receive Prince Bismarck.

FAVORABLE SYMPTOMS.

BERLIN, April 24.—The North German Gazette says that the Emperor's condition shows clearly a perceptible tendency toward slowly progressive improvement. His fever has diminished regularly during the last few days. His temperature to-day was thirty-eight degrees Celsius. His physicians hope for further abatement in view of recent symptoms developed, and they find especial reason for hope in the return of his appetite. The fact that the Emperor has hitherto taken a fair quantity of nourishment is solely due to the urgent recommendation of his physicians. Good results followed the observance of their advice. His Majesty's present disposition to take solid food is a satisfactory symptom. Dr. Kruse will leave the castle for the present.

A CHANGE FOR THE WORSE.

BERLIN, April 24.—An afternoon bulletin says: "The Emperor's condition is changed for the worse, and creates alarm.

MORE ENCOURAGING.

BERLIN, April 24.—A bulletin issued at 7:30 P. M. says the Emperor became feverish during the afternoon, but the fever abated somewhat toward evening, and his general condition is comparatively satisfactory. Dr. Mackenzie has declared his intention of prosecuting the journals which caluminated him.

VICTORIA'S VISIT.

The Queen's Arrival at Berlin—Received by the Emperor.

BERLIN, April 24.—Queen Victoria arrived at Charlottenberg at 9 o'clock this morning. The Empress, Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Saxe-Meiningen received her at the depot. Prince Henry and his sisters, the Princesses Victoria, Sophia and Margaret, Sir Edward Malet, the British Ambassador at Berlin, the Duke of Rutland, and the Burgomaster and Municipal Council of Berlin were also present. The greetings between Queen Victoria and the royal family of Germany were warm. The Crown Prince conducted the Queen to an open carriage drawn by four horses, which she entered, and with the Empress beside her was driven to the castle.

Crowds of people lined the route and cheered enthusiastically as the carriage passed. The Queen paid a visit to the Emperor shortly after her arrival at the castle. The doctors feared that the meeting would excite the Emperor and probably upset him, but their fears were groundless. The Emperor seemed rather bright after the interview and his temperature was more normal.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

The North German Gazette, referring to the visit of the Queen of England, says: "Her Majesty will be welcomed by the whole population of Germany, and, above all, by the inhabitants of Berlin, with the veneration and sympathy so justly due to one who has for so many years ruled a friendly state, and who is the mother of our Empress. All German hearts will thankfully accept, as a token of the Queen's deep sympathy for the fate of our reigning house, the fact that she comes to the sick bed of our beloved Emperor and personally shares the deep affliction and deep anxiety with which we are filled to-day. May she be enabled to bring comfort and hope, and when she departs from Germany to take with her the assurance that the sympathy she has displayed will always be kept in grateful remembrance here!"

HOW SHE SPENT THE DAY.

BERLIN, April 24.—Queen Victoria and the Empress drove out with the Prince and Princess of Saxe Meiningen. The streets were crowded and the Queen and Empress were greeted with enthusiasm. The Queen made three visits to the sick room of the Emperor, who is keeping his bed until he gets stronger. He has been in excellent spirits and had several refreshing naps. The meeting between Queen Victoria and her daughter, the Empress, this morning, was very touching. They embraced and kissed each other repeatedly. The Queen went immediately to see the Emperor and was astonished and delighted to find him looking better than she expected. She will depart to-morrow unless the Emperor should have a relapse.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A Lively Tilt Between the Factions—The Platform Adopted.

The Republican County Convention met yesterday morning in Turnverein Hall, which for the time presented a very lively appearance. There were delegates from almost every precinct in the county, and besides these, the leading lights of the party were out in full force. The Convention had been called for 10 o'clock, but for over half an hour after that time the representatives and the others interested occupied themselves in discussing the various moves to be made during the day. It was 10:40 o'clock when the delegates from the precincts came to the conclusion that they were ready for the weighty business of the day and took their seats on the floor General J. R. Brierly, at the time mentioned, advanced to the front of the platform and called the Convention to order. When the hum of voices had ceased, Secretary J. H. Book read the call for the convention. General Brierly then announced that the first business would be the nomination of a temporary chairman. Before his announcement had been concluded Messrs. W. H. Seamans and L. E. Mosher were on their feet waiting to be recognized. The chairman's eye caught sight of Mr. Mosher first, and that representative of the First Ward said:

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen: I rise to place in nomination one whom you all know, Judge W. H. Magee, of Pasadena.

Captain Seamans desired to place in nomination a gentleman who had not taken part in politics, a man who was able to command peace and harmony in the party. That gentleman was Judge W. F. Fitzgerald.

Both of these nominations were received with approbation by the Convention, neither appearing at this stage of the proceedings to be the favorite.

Chairman Brierly started to order the roll called, when from the rear came the voice of Mr. F. McGregor, who rose to place in nomination General Brierly. The General declined to entertain the nomination, and appointing Captain Seamans and F. G. Finlayson as tellers, ordered the roll to be called by precincts, each delegation vote to be announced by one of its members. The roll call resulted as follows: For Judge Magee—Alhambra 2, Anaheim 3, Cienega 4, Compton 5, Downey 4, El Monte 2, Fair Oaks 4, Florence 2, Glendora 2, Long Beach 2, Lordsburg 1, Los Angeles, First ward 9, Second ward 12, Third ward 6, Fifth ward 8, Monrovia 3, Orange 7, Pasadena 11, Pomona 9, Rowland 1, San Gabriel 2, San Pedro 4, Santa Ana 10, Santa Monica 4, Sierra Madre 2, South Pasadena 2, Trabuco 1, Tustin 1, Vernon 3, Wilmington 4, Palms 1, and Inglewood 1. Total, 136.

For Judge Fitzgerald—Anaheim 3, Artesia 3, Cahuenga 2, Duarte 1, Florence 1, Fruitland 1, Garden Grove 1, Garvanzo 2, Gladstone 2, Laguna 1, Los Angeles, First ward 8, Second ward 13, Fourth ward 14, Fifth ward 10, La Ballona 1, Newhall 3, Norwalk 3, Ravena 1, San Antonio 1, San Fernando 3, San Juan 2, Sepulveda 3, Silverado 1, Westminster 3, and Whittier 2. Total 99.

General Brierly then announced that Judge Magee had been chosen temporary chairman. Judge Fitzgerald rose and after congratulating the Convention upon its choice said that he had regarded the contest as between the city and country. The latter had won and he was glad of it. He moved that the nomination be made unanimous. Carried. Judge Magee after ascending the platform and after being introduced thanked the delegates for the honor conferred upon him. Continuing, he hinted that there was no time when the party had a better chance for victory and there was no time when it needed harmony so badly. He believed that it had been determined to have harmony and victory was sure to follow. He mentioned the fact that there are many names before the people as possible candidates for the nomination at the National Convention, but if he had the choice he would select James G. Blaine. (Cheers, waving of hats, Dervish dances in the lobby.) With a parting admonition to preserve harmony he announced the convention ready for business after a Secretary had been selected. H. Z. Osborne, F. G. Finlayson, J. B. de las Casas, F. P. Kelley, J. H. Boork and R. Melrose were nominated for temporary secretary, but all declined the honor except Mr. Osborne, who was elected by acclamation.

Upon motion of Messrs. H. T. Payne, J. W. McKinley and F. G. Finlayson respectively, the following committees were appointed:

Credentials—H. T. Payne, C. E. Day, B. W. Lee, Colonel Mudge and J. W. Wood.

Permanent Organization—J. W. McKinley, J. R Brierly, E. J. Vauter, C. D. Ambrose and C. T. Mansur.

Resolutions—F. G. Finlayson, Judge Fitzgerald, R. Melrose, General W. A. Pyle and H. Z. Osborne.

On motion of Mr. Finlayson, it was decided that all resolutions be given to the Committee on Resolutions without debate.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock.

After Recess.

It had been suggested, prior to the adjournment for recess, that the various committees could finish their work before 1 o'clock, but this was not the case. The Credential Committee found that it had a large contract on its hands, for there were many who had been duly elected but who had not had the forethought to supply themselves with the necessary bits of paper giving them the authority to act. It was known that these had not presented themselves without having been properly elected, but the committee decided to allow the Convention to settle this matter. The Committee on Permanent Organization found but little difficulty in settling upon a programme for the guidance of the Convention affairs, but the members of the Committee on Resolutions found themselves almost snowed under with documents which they were forced to peruse, digest and put in presentable shape. In the meantime the lobbyists kept up a continuous line of argument each for the particular candidate for whom he was laboring. The corners were more fully occupied than on any previous occasion since the hall has been in use. The main trouble seemed to be that there were not corners enough to go round. The aisles were wide enough, however, for the accommodation of those who were unable to find more secluded spaces. It was half past one o'clock when affairs seemed to have been settled, and the delegates demanded a continuance of the business of the Convention.

Chairman Magee called the meeting to order, and Mr. Lee, of the Committee on Credentials, reported as entitled to seats, the names of those published heretofore in the HERALD as having been elected as delegates. The report of the committee was adopted after Dr. Sinsabaugh had moved that no delegate be represented by a proxy residing in another precinct. He ask that the motion carry on the ground that it would lend purity to the Convention.

Gov. J. J. Gosper objected to this motion for the reason that it seemed to gag the citizens and prevent them from expressing their wishes through some one on whom they knew they could depend.

General Brierly also opposed the motion as did Mr. Gephard who knew of instances where delegates had been elected at a distance from the city and were unable to attend. It would not be right to shut out these people from expressing their wishes through some one else. Dr. Sinsabaugh's motion was lost by a large majority.

The Committee on permanent organization and order of business reported recommending the election for Chairman of Chairman Hon. H. W. Magee, of Pasadena; for Vice-Chairmen, Hon. C. McClay, of San Fernando, Col. M. Mudge, of Compton, Hon. N. Palmer, of Santa Ana, and Hon. W. F. Fitzgerald and Hon. E. F. Spence, of Los Angeles. For Secretary, H. Z Osborne; Assistant Secretaries, Wm. Moulthrop, of San Pedro, and J. W. Haverstick, of Los Angeles.

That the order of business be: first the report of the committee on platform and resolutions; second, the assessment of $1 for each delegate; third, the election of one delegate at-large to the State Convention with the recommendation that every means be used to have him elected as delegate to the National Convention; fourth, the election of twenty-two delegates to the State Convention, four from each Supervisoral district outside the city and ten from the city.

Mr. Finlayson moved that the report be divided and that each part be voted upon separately. Carried. That part relative to the officers was then carried. A motion to amend the latter part of the report so as to make it include a new Country Central Committee met with some opposition. Mr. Gephard objected to it because the County Convention, which would nominate the county officers, would meet later in the year and it was proper to select the committee at that time. Several thought that this being the year for the Presidential election the Committee should be selected at once, so as to be able to get to work earlier.

General Brierly thought it was too early to have a County Committee in the field.

Mr. H. T. Payne held an opposing view, and the amendment was carried almost unanimously.

J. B. de las Casas wanted a Sergeant-at-Arms, but the rest of the delegates thought such an officer was unnecessary. The whole report, as amended, was then adopted. The hat was passed around at this point and the collection taken.

The next business before the meeting was the election of a delegate at large.

Col. Boyce rose to make a personal explanation. He had entertained an ambition in the direction of the office named nearly two years ago to support General John A. Logan, but the General had passed away. Since that time he had entertained the ambition to be sent as a delegate to the National Convention to support James G. Blaine. (Cheers, as before.) Considering that it would be to the interests of a united party, he had decided to step aside and waive whatever ambition he had for the good of the party. He therefore asked that some one be selected for whom all could work. He would say that he would heartily support any one nominated by the Convention (cheers).

Major G. H. Bonebrake said he had been a Republican for thirty years, and had never asked for anything at the hands of the party. He wanted to say that he was connected with no clique, and he desired it known that he wore no man's collar, and when he became a candidate no one had asked him. He had announced himself, and would not withdraw. If he went down he would not go down in disgrace, but with the flag flyng.

Ex-Mayor E. F. Spence said he believed that harmony was essential, and he had been looking over the field. He had come to the conclusion that he would nominate Col. J. Banbury, of Pasadena, who, in his opinion, would be most acceptable to everybody.

Judge Carpenter said he had been instructed by the delgation from the Second Ward to present the name of Major Bonebrake before the Convention. He wanted to see the Republican party win, and Major Bonebrake was one who had ever been anxious for the success of the party.

Col. Mudge said he felt like taking a part in the meeting, and he therefore seconded the nomination of Major Bonebrake.

F. P. Kelly rose to place in nomination the name of one who had never been before a convention in Los Angeles. A young man in years, but old in the ways of the world. He would name Henry T. Gage, whom he thought would aid in carrying the party forward to success.

Henry T. Gage, having been loudly called, said he would do his utmost to represent California well if elected.

Col. Banbury was much surprised when he had been told that he might possibly be called to represent the party. He was most anxious for harmony, and was willing to do anything to promote it for the good of the party.

Governor J. J. Gosper said that he thought the right man to be elected was one about whom no one could say "he was a candidate of either faction." Although Major Bonebrake was a warm friend of his, yet his selection would give occasion to remark that he belonged either to one faction or another. For this reason he favored the election of Colonel Banbury. He did not believe that Major Bonebrake was the candidate of any faction, but for the interests of the party he hoped Colonel Banbury would receive the vote of the delegates.

General Pyle, of Monrovia, agreed to everything said in favor of harmony, but there was something else than harmony—justice—and he hoped justice would prevail. He believed that an injustice had been done Major Bonebrake by connecting him with any faction, and that justice might be done him the delegates should vote for him. Major Bonebrake had faced the audience and had said he was not the representative of any faction, and he believed him.

Ex-Governor Sheldon said he had known Major Bonebrake for thirty years, and had been in battle with him. He knew he was not a man representing any faction.

Mr. Gephard said that while Major Bonebrake might not represent any faction, and he did not believe that he did, yet there was a likelihood that he would be accused of representing one, and it would not do to select a delegate with a factional taint.

Gov. J. J. Gosper said that he had advised his friend, Colonel Boyce, to withdraw for the good of the party. Colonel Boyce had considered the good of the party and withdrawn, and he had strongly advised the other side to induce Major Bonebrake to withdraw. It was for the best interests of the party that both representatives of factions withdraw from the field, and that some one be selected who was not supported by any side in particular, but by the whole party.

Rev. W. E. Knighten thought there ought to be peace in the camp. He felt sorry to know there was so much disurbance in the party in the city, but such being the case, in his opinion the best man to select was Colonel Banbury, from the country.

Judge Magee said that he felt as if he must answer for the country delegates. They did not belong to any faction and were not in any fight. All that the delegation required was harmony.

Cries of "Roll-call" here prevailed, and the Chairman ordered the secretaries to commence the work.

The Secretary then called the roll, and as a result announced:

Banbury	115
Bonebrake	105
Gates	26
Total	246
Necessary to a choice	124

The second ballot had nearly been concluded when it was apparent that Major Bonebrake had lost considerably, especially in the city. A move was then made to flock toward the banner of H. T. Gage. One delegation from Pomona changed its vote to Gage and then another until there was a perfect rush in this direction. In a few moments the Convention appeared more as a pandemonium than a Convention of staid Republicans. In the rear Walter S. Moore, Carleton Kemp and others swung their hats and the cry was "make it unanimous."

The Chairman brought down his gavel and said that it had been moved and seconded that Henry T. Gage be elected delegate at large by acclamation. Carried vociferously. It was rumored in the lobby that a faction man had been elected after all, and that the candidate selected really took the place of Col. Boyce.

Henry T. Gage then thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and promised to do all in his power to represent the party as a unit. As for himself, he favored the selection of J. G. Blaine as the candidate for President.

The next order of business was the election of twenty-two delegates, four from each Supervisoral district outside of the city, and ten delegates from the city. On motion, the delegates from the various districts assembled in separate portions of the hall, and considered the naming of the delegates to the State Convention.

After a recess of twenty minutes the following delegates were named:

First Ward—C. H. White, C. R. Finlayson. Alternates—T. A. Garey, E. L. Moshen.

Second Ward—R. B. Carpenter, G. P. Bonebrake. Alternates—A. A. Montaño, C. W. H. Nelson.

Third Ward—H. Z. Osborne, H. H. Boyce. Alternates—E. F. Spence, Mr. Owen.

Fourth Ward—John Lovell, H. T. Payne. Alternates—J. J. Gosper, S. M. Perry.

Fifth Ward—W.m. Niles, J. Frankenfield. Alternates—G. W. Hawkins, C. W. Pendleton.

First District—J. Banbury, F. P. Kelly, F. E. Gray, W. L. Johnson.

Second District—W. H. Bonsall, E. J. Vawter, J. H. Goldsmith, J. R. Brierly.

Fifth District—M. A. Foster, O. P. Chubb, R. Melrose, A. J. Waterhouse.

Colonel Mudge moved that the County Committee consist of one member from each precinct.

Amended by Mr. Payne so that the committee will consist of two delegates from each ward in the city, from Pomona, Santa Ana, Pasadena, and that all other precincts be entitled to one representative.

On motion of Mr. Gephard and Judge Fitzgerald, the convention endorsed H. Z. Osborne as the delegate from the district to the National Convention.

It was decided, on motion of Capt. Seaman, to select alternate delegates from each district.

Members of the County Central Committee were announced as follows: Anaheim, J. W. Landell; Artesia, L. C. Mason; Azusa, O. H. Huber; Burbank, R. A. Marshall; Cahuenga, Seward Cole; Cienega, I. C. Baron; Compton, J. J. Morton; Downey, D. P. Smart; Duarte, Wm. Chiffendall; Fair Oaks, F. K. Sewall; Fruitland, J. W. Bacheller; Garvanzo, E. B. King; Gladstone, D. W. Hamlin; Glendora, E. P. Humphrey; Laguna, G. W. Woods; Long Beach, C. S. Hussey; Ballona, J. O. Lamb; Lordsburg, W. B. Role; Monrovia, W. N. Munroe; Newhall, J. Matter; Newport, H. Salter; Norwalk, J. V. Dilley; Orange, O. P. Chubb; Pasadena, H. J. Vail, W. E. Arthur; Pomona, C. D. Ambrose, F. G. Haley; Ravena, D. A. Wagoner; Rowland, J. W. Hutton; San Fernando, F. M. Wright; San Gabriel, J. R. Robbins; Alhambra, D. P. Walter; San Juan, M. A. Forster; San Pedro, J. H. Goldsmith; Santa Ana, M. D. Halladay, F. S. Taylor; Santa Monica, R. R. Tanner; Sepulveda, H. J. Crow; Sierra Madre, A. D. Hawks; Silverado, Thomas Harris; South Pasadena, O. R. Dougherty; Spadra, H. T. Collins; Trabuco, Wallter Robbins; Tustin, H. Youst; Westminster, R. D. Harris; Wilmington, E. H. Downing; Inglewood, F. B. Mitchell; Palms, W. W. Holton; Whittier, L. M. Baldwin;

First Ward—D. Gilbert Dexter, S. Hutton.

Second Ward—G. P. McLain, Theo. Summerland.

Third Ward—F. J. Gilmore, W. H. Seamans.

Fourth Ward—S. M. Perry, J. J. Gosper.

Fifth Ward—W. P. McIntosh, J. M. Damron.

The committee was authorized to fill the precincts not represented.

Mr Payne moved that the County Central Committee meet and select its chairman upon the adjournment of the Convention. Carried.

The Committee on Platform and Resolutions then read its report, as follows:

PREAMBLE: The Republican party of Los Angeles county in convention assembled mindful of the vast interests involved in the coming Presidential election and proud of the achievements of this party in the Nation and State, and profoundly believing that the policy of the present Democratic administration if continued will be ruinous to the manufacturing, wool-growing and general industrial interests of the country do resolve as follows:

Resolved, That if the thinly guised policy of free trade advocated in the recent annual message of the President to Congress and exemplified in the Mills' Tariff Bill should become the policy of the country it could not fail to cripple the vine, fruit and wool interests of California and by rendering unprofitable great numbers of industries now in successful operation or in their infancy throw hundreds of thousands of American workmen out of employment and bring about a disastrous depression throughout the country.

Resolved, That the policy of protection to the productions of American labor and American capital, instituted and fostered by the Republican party, has resulted in an era of prosperity and a vast commerce between the States of the Union, never before equaled in the history of our country, nor in the history of the world.

Resolved, That as Republicans, we are absolutely and unqualifiedly opposed to the admission of Chinese laborers to the United States, under any pretext whatever, and denounce the half-way measures proposed by the present Democratic administration, ostensibly to check such immigration, as being utterly inadequate.

Resolved, That silver in all ages of the world has been co-equal with gold as a standard of value, and that the attempt to range the United States with the bondholding countries of Europe in demonetizing silver, thereby increasing the purchasing power of gold and the value of American securities held by them, as advocated by the President, is an injustice to the country and tends to the ruin of the vast silver industry of the Pacific Coast, upon which thousands of our citizens subsist.

Resolved, That we arraign the Democratic administration for its failure in all things to carry out its promises to the country, and particularly for its abandonment of the civil service reform policy so loudly proclaimed upon its entry into power.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Los Angeles county assembled, send greeting to our Representative in Congress, the Hon. Wm. Vandever, and congratulate him and the people of this District upon the sure prospect of his confirmation by the House of Representives in his right to his seat therein.

Resolved, That this Convention hereby expresses the unwavering confidence of the Republicans of the county in the wisdom, confidence and patriotism of James G. Blaine, their high regard for his person, and profound conviction that the highest interest of the whole country would be served by his election to the Chief Magistracy of the Republic, at the same time we desire to express abiding confidence in the wisdom of the coming National Convention of the Republican party, and pledge to the nominee of that party, whoever he may be, a loyal and enthusiastic support.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the County Central Committee, when issuing a call for the next County Convention, should instruct the voters in the different precincts to elect at their primaries a sufficient number of alternates to sit in the place of absent delegates, and that thereby the use of proxies be discontinued.

Resolution introduced by H. W. F. Fitzgerald and adopted unanimously:

Resolved—That it is the sense of this Convention that the Hon. H. Z. Osborne is the choice of the Republicans of this county for District delegate to the National Convention and that the delegation to the State Convention are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure his election.

Convention Whispers.

Was it harmonious?

Which faction is on top?

The county delegates got left.

The Times candidate was snowed under.

What faction does Henry T. Gage represent?

Colonel Boyce declined the nomination before his name was mentioned.

Major Bonebrake and the Times went down with the "flag a flying."

Major Bonebrake said he was no faction candidate before he had been so charged.

Was the gentleman who placed Henry Gage in nomination a member of one of the factions?

Captain Seamans opened the proceedings by announcing that peace and harmony was desired.

Col. Banbury said he was surprised to hear that he was a possible candidate. Was the anti-Times faction?

Gov. Gosper advised the withdrawal of both faction candidates. Did they withdraw?

It was whispered that Col. Banbury's nomination was the result of a Sunday drive to Pasadena of one of the faction leaders.

Judge Magee said there never was a time when harmony was needed so badly in the Republican party as now. Does he think so still?

It was whispered that Colonel Otis did not congratulate the delegate at large for the reason that he suspected that all was not fair as it seemed.

Col. Otis' absence from the hall after the result was announced, was considered as significant of his displeasure at the election of the opposion candidate.

The selection of Judge Magee, of Pasadena, as chairman was a straw, showing the opposition of the majority of the Convention to the Times faction.

After the excitement died out the county delegates did not appear so enthusiastic as before. Did they suspect that they had helped to elect a faction candidate?

Ex-Mayor Spence nominated Col. Banbury in the interests of harmony. F. P Kelly nominated Henry T. Gage for the same reason. Why was the Times candidate nominated?

The leaders of the county delegations announced early in the day that they were opposed to faction candidates, yet it was rumored that they had been led into voting for one, and that the wool had been pulled over their eyes.

Work Commenced on the S. P.'s New Branch.

A HOST OF EXCURSIONISTS.

More Motive Power Badly Needed on the Southern Pacific System.

On Monday morning the construction forces of the Southern Pacific Company broke ground on the new swing line from Anaheim to Tustin. As surveyed, this line will run as follows: It leaves the Santa Ana branch at a point about one mile and a half south of Anaheim, then runs parallel with the old line to Hager and Congress' large vineyard, which it traverses and then goes east to Joel Parker's orange groves. From there it runs almost due south, crossing the Santiago creek at Alward's place, about a quarter of a mile north of McPherson, which town it heads for, and enters by the main street, passing by the large packing house, north of which a depot will be constructed. It then runs south for about 160 rods through the West and Rogers ranches, after which it makes a short turn east through the Sanders place and reaches the western extremity of D. Hewes' mammoth foothill vineyard. It then bends directly south and makes almost a bee-line for Tustin City, its present terminus, and which, it will be remembered, is near the frontier of the San Joaquin ranch.

This line is the outcome of the refusal of residents of Santa Ana to grant a right of way through that town to the company, and after it goes into operation and is finally extended across the San Joaquin to San Diego, the track between Anaheim and Santa Ana will be simply used for local work. Messrs. Huntington, Towne and Crocker made a personal survey over the above-outlined route, and on their arrival at San Francisco gave instructions for the work to be commenced as soon as possible. Only about fifty men and ten teams were working on the grade yesterday, but it is stated that a large force will be sent down at once—probably one of the construction outfits of the Pacific Improvement Company being called into requisition.

The new line will go directly through the southern limits of Anaheim, about one mile from Orange, half a mile from Modena, and about two miles and a half from Santa Ana.

Two mammoth excursions arrived in this city yesterday morning, one in charge of the "Sunset" people, and the other via the Santa Fe under the auspices of Messrs. A. Phillips & Co.

The Sunset excursionists arrived in a special train at 9:30 A. M., highly delighted with their trip, and proceeded at once to inspect the city. A complete list of the persons comprising the party will be published in tomorrow's issue.

THE FREIGHT BLOCKADE.

It is Caused by an Insufficiency of Motive Power.

Regarding the statement that the Visalia division of the Southern Pacific is blocked with freight cars, Mr. Coddington, Superintendent of that district, says that the trouble is really caused on the Los Angeles division. He acknowledges that an unusual number of cars are side-tracked along his route, but says that this is caused by the inability of the divisions south of him to receive and handle them. Perishable goods have all been rushed through, and in no single instance has a car been held back.

On mention of this statement to Colonel Hewitt yesterday afternoon that gentleman remarked, "Yes, I suppose that is about the way the matter stands, and his division is no more to blame than any of the others. The cause of this state of things is that the company has insufficient rolling stock to handle the business, which has increased at an unexpected rate during the past few months. The difficulty will soon be removed, however, as by May 1st, 138 new locomotives are to be ready for the company, of which of course we will receive our share."

It is stated that there are 900 cars of freight for Los Angeles on the tracks between here and San Francisco, and nearly 2000 cars between Ogden and this city which should have been here weeks ago.

General Gleanings.

The local passenger traffic between this city and San Fernando grows heavier day by day.

Mrs. James Brown Potter's traveling car the "Mayflower," is a very handsome one. It is sidetracked at the north end of the Southern Pacific depot.

The Southern Pacific track has been very nearly washed out at several points in Arizona. The recent rainstorms there are said to be as furious as any ever recorded.

Mr. Coddington, Superintendent of the Visalia division of the Southern Pacific, intends to take a vacation. He has been working for twenty-four years without a day's holiday and thinks that he is entitled to a rest.

It is probable that a special theatre train will be run up from Long Beach on Saturday night to accommodate those wishing to witness Mrs. Potter as Juliet, and those desiring to attend the closing scenes of the Flower Festival.

THE RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

Matters Progressing Pleasingly For the Coming Convention.

The Committee of Arrangements for the State Democratic Convention met at their headquarters, in room 90 in the St. Elmo Hotel, yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock and heard the reports of sub-committees. It was found that the work of perfecting the arrangements for the reception of the coming delegates was proceeding finely. Abundant and suitable quarters have been secured at reasonable charges and arrangements are progressing to have everything done to make them as comfortable as possible. It was definitely decided that the delegates should be shown some of the beauties of the surrounding country and a visit in a special train to Santa Monica and Pasadena were among the places selected. The meeting then adjourned.

Ice! Ice! Cold Storage!

Contractors and consumers of ice will do well to wait for the opening of the works of the Hendrick Machine Ice Co., which will occur on or about May 15th. At the same time there will be rooms ready for the cold storage of meat, poultry and fruit. Works located Santa Fe R. R., between 6th and 7th streets.

The matter is now being prepared for this popular publication. The edition will be larger than ever before, and its columns will be filled with carefully prepared matter reflecting the progress and industry of Southern California. The illustrations will be more numerous than ever before, and in point of excellence the engraver's art will maintain the high reputation this publication has deservedly gained. Parties desirous of availing themselves of the advantages this special edition offers for advertising and write-ups, will do well to hand in their orders at as early a day as possible.

The Short-Hairs on Top.

The country Republicans came into the County Convention yesterday with blood in their eyes. They were determined that neither the long-hairs nor the short-hairs, who have been tearing at each other's entrails, should longer rule the party in this county. The Boyce-Otis vendetta was sat down upon with the weight of a forty-parson-power squat. The long-hairs were struck silly by the attitude of the grangers; but the short-hairs, who know more of politics in a minute than their antagonists could learn in forty years, sang low and sweetly. They not only accepted the situation, but egged on and sided with their country cousins. In this way they got their work in, and when it came to a clean-up of the sluices, it was found that the short-hairs were Guinea gold. Boyce goes to the State Convention and the Boycites get away with their delegate-at-large. Of course the outcome of all this will be to widen the "bloody chasm," and to re-embitter the family quarrel. The fact is the long-hairs have been badly out-generaled. Whilst they were reposing in the security of their towering dignity, the boys were working like beavers in the country. They marked the prejudices of their country cousins and sided with them. They deplored the split and showed an alacrity and willingness to stand aside. But all the while they were looking out for Number One. They drew wool over the eyes of the good-Lord-deliver-us wing of their party, and they threw chaff into the optics of the daisies from the rural districts. They played their cards so well that, while seeming to want nothing, they got everything. When it comes to working the political machine, it will be a cold day when the Boyces and Moores get left. It will be noted as a large-sized straw, that the long-hairs have been tooting their horns for Sherman, while the clip-headed fellows have been blowing their bazoos for Blaine. The Convention shelved the frigid man from Ohio, and endorsed Blaine for the Presidency. This ends the fight—now let the fight go on.

CAPTAIN GEO. W. BELL of Iowa, a former Republican, put the issue in a very vigorous way. In a recent interview he says:

"Cleveland in his message has cut the Gordian knot. This campaign will not be opened with prayer or run with a corkscrew. A deliberate man, with patriotism without pretension, common sense without ostentation and courage without parade, has stripped the veil from the National idol, and the people are going to examine the merits of his pretensions. All the books and pamphlets and articles written or the speeches made on the tariff question are tame in their effects on the public mind when compared to the influence of that modest document. "Tariff" and "protection" are talked by everybody, in every home, shop and place of business, and even the words "free trade" may be spoken above a whisper without frightening sensible people."

"But, Captain, are the comments favorable or otherwise to Mr. Cleveland as a candidate?"

"They are favorable. Mr. Cleveland has exposed with the hand of a master the extortions and hypocricies practiced under the guise of "protecting American industry," and he is being regarded as the brave and able exponent of the people's cause. In an age when successful corruption finds applause, and when magnetic villiany is dubbed statesmanship, a hope for the Republic is found in the fact that courageous honesty still touches a responsive chord in the bosoms of the toiling millions. The feeling that Mr. Cleveland is the President of the people is growing wonderfully fast, and to many the message was a new revelation. Thought is wonderfully stimulated, and there is almost a clamor for means of knowledge on questions heretofore considered too dry for interest and too complex for the common understanding. The Protectionists are becoming alarmed and are flooding the country with their literature. But even this seems only to create suspicion and intensify the spirit of inquiry, for many farmers are beginning to wonder how the fellows who need protection so bad get money to waste in this manner, and how it comes that the millionaire in the East, who has so much love for the farmer and the laboring man, protests so earnestly against relieving them of unnecessary taxation."

This is the kind of comment on the attitude of the Democracy on the tariff that strikes the Republicans between wind and water. It is like the burr under the mule's tail. The more they kick the faster the burr sticks.

On Sunday Mr. William Galer, for three months past editor of the Index, severed his connection with the paper, he having made different arrangements. Mr. C. G. Noble, the city editor, will struggle to fill the position. —[San Bernardino Index.

The retiring editor was too good to run a daily newspaper. His morals were so immaculate that he saw unpardonable depravity in the make-up of men the latchets of whose shoes he was not fit to unloose. This is the fellow who made a wanton and libelous attack upon Hon. M. F. Tarpey, whom he denounced as an immoral man. When asked for his proof, the witness he calls to the stand repels the slander. He then denounces his own witness, and declares that the defeat of Tarpey by a failure to get as many votes as the lamented Bartlett proves that the people looked upon him as an immoral man. The wretched slanderer might have accounted for the difference in the vote between Tarpey and Bartlett in the fact that the American ticket, headsd by Wigginton, polled between seven and eight thousand votes, and that Waterman had the benefit of these votes at the cost of Tarpey. Had the American ticket had the nsme of a third man on it for Lieutenant-Governor as it had for Governor, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Tarpey would have run about even. Vale, Pecksniff Galer!

Increasing the Power and Weakening the Checks.

THE weak point of the new charter is its unrepublican and undemocratic invasion of the principle of representation of small constituencies. The Councilman who represents a small neighborhood feels a sense of direct responsibility which does not weigh with the man who represents a constituency three times as large. The latter is not so close to the people as the former, and is therefore more independent of their control. It is a fact that the great corporations which seek to control legislation no longer tamper with the popular branches of our Legislatures. They get in their work in the Senates, and thus exercise a veto power upon the action of the Houses. This tendency is even manifest in the Congress of the United States. The House is a truly representative body of the people, whilst the Senate is rapidly becoming a representative body of the corporations and the millionaires. If the people of this city once let go their hold upon the Council through a numerous representation, they will find, when it is too late, that they have given power into the hands of a few men who will be in position to abuse it. We have no objection to the experiment of increasing the power of the Mayor, providing we retain the countercheck of a representative Council. But to largely increase the power and patronage of the Mayor, and at the same time to lessen the representative power of the people to hold a check upon the Mayor if he should attempt to abuse his enlarged powers, would be simply suicidal. It is all well enough to point to the fact that we have heretofore had a class of men in the Mayoralty whom it would be safe to trust under any and all circumstances. But we have had this class of men heretofore simply because the office was one rather of honor than of either emolument or patronage. As soon as the Mayor is invested with a patronage which includes the dispensation of a large number of important and lucrative offices, the pot-politicians will begin to make themselves felt in the selection of the men for nomination to this dignity. Combinations will be made to divide the spoils to suit the managers behind the scenes, and the candidates who make the best bargains with the manipulators will go before their party conventions with the best chances to get the nomination. The result will be that there will be quite a lowering in the tone and character of our Mayors. We shall have mercenary and unscrupulous men in the place that has heretofore been occupied by men of integrity and public spirit.

WHICH dog was on top in the fight when the battle of the factions closed yesterday in the Republican Convention was made clear as daylight by the wild way in which that preux chevalier of the party, Colonel Walter S. Moore and his sturdy henchmen rent their lungs and tore their clothes for joy.

STATISTICS demonstrate that the wages of operatives in protected Eastern manufactures have gone down as the tariff has gone up. The fact is, the rate of wages of operatives does not, and never has, depended upon tariff protection. It has gone up or down, according to law of supply and demand. As a Chicago man well expressed it: "When you see two employers running after one workman, wages are up; but when you see one workman running after two employers, wages are down."

REPUBLICANS who think, or try to persuade themselves to think, that the American "idea" is dead, or that the other Nemesis of the g. o. p., Prohibition, is asleep, consumptive, or otherwise than robust, should procure a copy of America, of the Statesman, or of the Voice, the two first named journals being of Chicago, and the last of New York. An hour's perusal of the pages of these papers will rudely awaken the careless Republican from a sweet but delusive dream. It is altogether likely that Prohibition will poll 50,000 votes in New York next November and 25,000 in New Jersey. The party leaders in Los Angeles county count their killings at a round thousand for the fall hunt.

OUR esteemed evening contemporary has a rare faculty of laughing at its readers. It tells them they must not vote against the new charter if they want the city to become possessed of the Water Company's plant. As the Water Company's franchise has nearly ten years to run, it is difficult to conceive where the rationale of this kind of reasoning comes in. If the new charter is downed by the people, as it ought to be, we shall be able to submit another and more perfect one long before the next Legislature meets. It is not honest to say that the right of this city to secure the Water Company's plant depends upon the adoption of the new charter. Indeed, it is squarely dishonest to do so, because it is both untrue and misleading.

THE spasmodic and frantic efforts of our Republican friends to get out of faction difficulties in the County Convention yesterday were truly amusing. When the two factions of the g. o. p. in this section shall have been laid to rest, there will be left about as much of the party in an efficient condition as there was of the feline tribe in that historic combat at Kilkenny. Skin and hair flew when the battle waxed hot, and to find a man free from the "taint of faction" was about as easy as the discovery of that lost needle in the hay-stack.

REPUBLICAN platforms in the current years of grace are shorn of fully half their pristine beauties. The "point-with-pride" wing on which they erstwhile soared so high, is clipped of all its plumes: and the half-"winged words" of the resolutions, with only the "view-with alarm" pinion left them to droop to earth, grovel in the depths of despair and fall dead upon listless ears. Alas! Poor Yorick of a party.

THE friends of the new charter have been driven into the position of admitting the glaring defects of the instrument; but insist that these defects can be cured by subsequent amendment. This is, of course, an entire surrender of the whole question. Under the State Constitution, it is more difficult to amend an accepted charter than it is to get up, submit and pass a new one.

APPEARANCES on the surface in the Republican County Convention in this city yesterday could hardly fail to lead thinking people to the conclusion that a certain local leader—his enemies call him "boss"—while rather lame in his orthography of the word "politician," is a most excellent hand at working the "machine." "He got there" yesterday, an easy winner.

THERE is one sincere outgiving in the platform formulated yesterday by the Republicans of this county. There is no question that they regret that civil service does not extend so far as to keep every Republican official of the land in his place. They will not be so sincere on this proposition if they ever get into power again.

EX-GOVERNOR WARMOUTH thinks the Republicans will carry Louisiana by 25,000 majority on the protection issue next fall. This is the same Warmouth who was defeated for Governor of Louisiana a few days since by about 50,000 majority.

How will our esteemed Republican contemporary which floats the flag of icy Sherman swallow the plank in the local platform which declares for silver?

FLORAL FANTASIES.

Thousands of Visitors at the Pavilion.

SCENES ABOUT THE BOOTHS.

Yesterday Evening's Entertainment — Good Financial Returns.

Yesterday was an eventful day within the Flower Festival building, for during the afternoon it was visited by all of the children of the Catholic Orphan's Home. The little ones were delighted with their treat and when the liberality of Mr. John E. Plater presented them with a box of candy and a plate of ice-cream each their pleasure knew no bounds. During the morning and afternoon the number of visitors recorded at the door was quite large and the evening found the hall as well filled as usual. The entertainment was opened by a performance of aesthetic maidens under the direction of Miss Leila Bried which was a very entertaining and well-played effort. It was followed by a drill of the Seventh Infantry Battalion, N. G. C. Major W. H. H. Russell commanding which was executed with the martial precision that would be expected from that company. The orchestra then moved their quarters on to the stage and the sight-seers were left to their own devices.

The Santa Monica booth looks more handsome than ever since its redecoration and reflects great credit on Mr. S. Tyler, its designer, and executor. The display of flowers is very choice and is a striking evidence of the wondrous fertility and beauties of the place where they are produced.

The Anaheim booth oo, is worthy of a prolonged visit. The ladies in charge have kept their exhibit in wondrous order, and are determined that it shall be in the front rank when the prizes are awarded. The variety of flowers is one of the chief features of interest, proving indubitably that the place of their production has received a generous shower of nature's gifts.

Compton sends up a bounteous supply of milk each day to the milk shake booth, and those who sample it never fail to return again and again.

Fifty-five varieties of beautiful wild flowers are displayed in the booth bearing that name, and under their new alban canopy are much admired.

The pink and pansy booth is always to the front with something new and is now embellished with a number of floral designs made in the shape of a maltese cross, heart, crescent, fan, star and a large cornucopia.

The rich colors of the geranium booth and the excellent order in which it is kept captivate the eye, and the ladies in charge are to be complimented for their successful work.

The ice-cream booth, the Woman's Exchange and the kindergarten are places so well known to every visitor that only a mere mention of them is necessary to remind the reader that a visit to any of these places is always amply rewarded.

Mr. Lyons sent in another handsome set piece yesterday, designed for a dinner table. It was placed just near the main entrance, and was surrounded all the evening by a throng of entranced admirers.

THE ROLL OF HONOR.

Mrs. C. W. Blaisdell has done remarkable work in the lunch-room and Mesdames Slauson, E. P. Johnson and E. D. Grandon have also been of valuable assistance to the festival.

Mrs. Dr. Hagan has taken charge of the entry room in a manner that reflects the highest credit upon that lady.

In the office, Mrs. W. B. Abernethy has, as Financial Secretary, done marvellous work, and has been ably aided by Mrs. Frank Gibson.

Last, but most prominent of all comes Mrs. Judge Widney, who has borne the brunt of the battle. At her post from morning to night, she has always been attentive to the thousand and one things demanding attention, and has performed her duties in a manner that has won for her the respect of her associates. The members of the press are unanimous in the praise of this noble lady, and the HERALD hereby records the many obligations for which it is indebted to her.

NOTES.

Districts 9, 10, 11 and 12 will be canvassed for flowers to-day.

Inglewood has secured a curiosity in the shape of a Strelitzia regina.

Mr. John Lang has donated $5 worth of cake to the Ice Cream booth.

A special rose exhibit is announced for to-day by the Santa Monica booth.

The gate receipts yesterday amounted to $696.90 and the booth collections $526.44, a total of $1,223.34.

Captain H. W. Patton, accompanied by his charming wife, paid his second visit to the Festival last night.

The entertainment to-night will consist of song personations under the direction of Mrs. R. D. P. Widner.

A freak of nature is to be seen at the Rose Booth, consisting of forty buds on a single sprig from a Lamarque rosebush.

A numoer of the tourists who got in on yesterday's excursion visited the Pavilion last night, and were amazed at the glories awaiting them.

The prize competition opened on Monday night, and exhibitors are advised to be on the qui vive, as the judges are deciding as to who shall have the prizes.

The parti-colored floral parasol, which adorned the rose booth last night, was designed and made by Miss Field and Mrs. St. George, and presented to the festival.

Masters Johnny Adams, Charlie Adams, Joe Bigelow and Charlie Nichols presented Mrs. Judge Widney yesterday with a handsome floral summer-house in minature.

Mrs. Mitchell, in charge of the Anaheim booth, is one of the most indefatigable workers in the building. She is at her post from the hour the Pavilion opens until its close.

The following is a list of some of the articles found about the building and awaiting redemption at the office: Child's bracelet, silver lace-pin, child's charm, breast-pin, button-hook and a silver scarf-pin.

To-day is Children's Day, and the youngsters will be admitted from 2 to 4 P. M. for 10 cents each. After that hour the usual price will be charged. The attending are requested to bring the exact amount of entrance money, as chance is at times very scarce.

The owner of the bad ten-cent piece which was handed in exchange for a bouquet at the Boutonniere Booth has not yet called for it and the ladies who adorn that edifice are endeavoring to induce some charitably-disposed person to reedeem it for its full face value.

IN JAIL.

An Innocent Man Held 300 Days and Then Freed.

A tale of long confinement in a cell in the jail of a perfectly innocent man came to light in Judge Gardiner's Court yesterday forenoon, for which there is not the slightest recompense. John Kelly was a witness in a case nerly a year ago, and on the case being continued indefinitely, was asked for bonds to insure his whereabouts when wanted. He was unable to give bonds, and consequently he was remanded to jail to await the coming up of the case. The case has not yet "come up," and yesterday forenoon Mr. H. J. Crawford, the popular attorney, on a writ of habeas corpus, took Kellly before Judge Gardiner and had him discharged. He has been in jail 300 days, and will receive not a cent's worth of remuneration for his loss of time, to say nothing of his confinement.

Marchant-Perkins.

Everyone knows genial good-looking Walter Marchant, one of the deputies in the County Recorder's office and for a long time money-order clerk in the Post Office. Walter is a prominent Native Son, the First Vice-President of Los Angeles Parlor, No. 45, and with a laudable effort to improve the welfare of California he gently embarked on matrimonal seas last Sunday, when he was united in marriage to Miss Hattie E. Perkins, a charming young lady. The marriage took place in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church and was a quiet one. Legions of friends joined in wishing the young couple much happiness.

STOCK EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The stock market was again active and strong to-day almost from the opening to the close, and more decided gains were made in the list than at any previous time since the rise began. There was less feverishness and much less hesitation at the opening of business, when there had been a selling movement in anticipation of a reaction every day for some time. The market finally closed active and strong at or near the best prices of the day.

Government bonds were active and strong.

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

Overland Excursion.

Passengers oining these parties are in the hands of a responsible railway company, not an "excursion agency"; its employes are its representatives, and accustomed to serving the public.

Dates.—Trains leave Los Angeles on Thursdays and San Francisco on Fridays, meeting at Sacramento Friday afternoon. Dates are as follows: From Los Angeles—March 15th, 29th; April 12th, 26th; May 10th, 24th; June 7th, 21st; July 5th, 19th; and day following from San Francisco, Sacramento, Tulare, Fresno, Merced, Lathrop, San Jose, Stockton, Davis, Marysville, Colfax and Reno.

First-class these excursions undoubtedly are in every respect, as no objectionable people are received, and each party is in charge of Burlington agents through to Chicago.

Free sleeping cars, properly provided with curtains, mattresses, blankets, etc. No extra charge for this, or for any other service.

Rates, $35.00 is the price of a ticket from Los Angeles, San Francisco and most California stations to any Missouri river point, and only slightly more to points further east.

Scenery by daylight is a great feature, as these excursions will stop twenty-four hours in Salt Lake, and go by daylight through the Black Cañon of the Gunnison, cross the Continental Divide through the famous Marshall Pass, thence down the Valley of the Arkansaw through the Grand Cañon and the Royal Gorge.

Further particulars are contained in Burlington Route excursion folder, to be had at any ticket offices of the Southern Pacific and other railways, and at Burlington Route offices below.

HOW MANY WAYS CAN THIS BE READ?

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD IS BY ALL ACknowledged to have been the prime factor in the discovery and making known of the resources of this section. To its sagacious outgivings more than to any other agency our marvelous development is attributed.

THE HERALD has from its inception watched with a single eye the budding industries of this portion of the State. For each good enterprise this journal has at all times had a word of cheerful encouragement. In spite of the skeptical, it has survived to see all of its earlier predictions fulfilled to the letter.

THE HERALD to-day takes the lead in all respects among the papers of Southern California. Its first care still is the material, intellectual and social interests of its section. It aims to be truthful rather than over-zealous in its publication of news; to be conservative, rather than over-sensational, in its policy; to be clean and decent, respecting the sacred precincts of the home and fireside, rather than indecently salacious in its tone.

THE HERALD gets all the news from all quarters of the globe with promptness, accuracy and dispatch. Its local staff is energetic and well-trained to miss nothing of real importance to its readers. It is always alive to all public enterprises.

THE HERALD still takes pride in aiding any legitimate material, intellectual or social movement which will benefit the people. No other journal in this section approaches it in these important respects.

THOSE "SPOOK" PICTURES.

The Testimony Shows Them to Be Bogus Daubs.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The examination in the Diss de Barr case was continued to-day, and Lawyer Marsh testified at length regarding his acquaintance with the Madame, his belief in "spook" pictures, etc. He believed that the woman was really the daughter of Lola Montez, and was also under the impression that she was the daughter of the King of Bavaria. Witness firmly believed that the pictures and spirit messages given him by Madame Diss de Barr were supernatural. Madame, as a medium, had informed him that Raphael and Rembrandt, had, out of compliment to each other, painted pictures of each other and they were presented to him. An employee of an artist's supply store testified to purchases having been made by Madame Diss de Barr, and another witness testified that the purchases were materials which could be used for re-touching old pictures or painting new ones. Mrs. Friedland, an artist, testified that the spook pictures were daubs of the worst character, and that the paints were modern and not such as used by the old masters.

PARLIAMENT.

Irish Outrages Discussed—Gallant Gladstone and McCarthy.

LONDON, April 24.—In the Commons to-day Justin McCarthy moved the House to adjourn on urgency in order to call attention to the departure from the usual practice in Irish county courts by increasing sentences on appeal. He argued that the whole practice was opposed to all previous experience.

The Solicitor-General for Ireland held that it was not an appeal, but really a re-hearing of the case, and it was the duty of the Judge to pronounce the judgment he considered warranted.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt said that no single case of increase in sentence had occurred in England. He denounced the practice, and said that after this Irishmen could not, and ought not to have, confidence in the administration of the law, because it was carried out in a manner repugnant to Englishmen.

Balfour defended the practice and asked the House to reject the motion, which was done.

Gladstone said the fact that an appeal had been granted showed it was intended to be exercised in favor o the accused, not against him. He taunted Balfour with a breach of faith in granting the appeal, and then practically putting a veto on it.

Balfour appealed to the speaker to declare Gladstone out of order, but the Speaker ruled in Gladstone's favor, and the decision was received with great applause.

Gladstone said the practice was a trick of the meanest kind, a discredit for which he moved not to divide between the Government and the authorities in Ireland, for he did not know how to divide it. He believed in this discussion McCarthy had struck a death blow at this outrageous practice, totally impossible in England and Scotland, but good enough for Ireland as long as the people of England were disposed to tolerate it.

Attorney-General Webster, amid derisive laughter, denied that the government had interfered with the Irish magistracy.

Union Pacific Statement.

BOSTON, April 24.—The annual report of the Union Pacific Railroad, now being printed, reviews its relations with the Government, the advantages of the Oregon Navigation lease, and shows that the effect of the interstate commerce act in reducing the local earnings has been slight. Revenue from local freight, excluding commercial coal, $11,566,772; decrease, 33 per cent. from 1886. Net decrease in funded debt, $838,971.

Three million dollars are needed for its equipment, for which notes will be issued. The investment and permanent improvement account has been increased to $6,818,794. The gross earnings were $19,546,088, against $17,846 132 in 1886, and the net earnings $9,111,886, against 7,522,700 for the previous year. The income for 1887 shows a balance of $3,599,507, or 5.91 per cent upon the capital stock. Bonds to the extent of $2 804,472 were cancelled, and $1,016,000 collateral trust 5's were sold to foreign bankers. At the close of the year the company had notes payable of $3,335,000, and a gross floating debt of $7,464,443. The cash assets exceeded the debt by $401,689. The local business, including commercial coal, was $12,855,896, an increase over 1886 of 1.07 per cent. The through business was $4,673,507, an increase of 47.82 per cent.

HARRISBURG, Penn., April 24.—For the first time in six years Senator Don Cameron appears personally upon the ground at the State Convention. The fight for the chairmanship for the State Committee was settled by compromise this evening. Senator Cooper continues to act as chairman until the first of next January, which gives him the management of the campaign this year.

A Fatal Fire.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Examiner says: Fire broke out shortly after 11 o'clock to-night in the second floor of a four-story building, which filled with smoke. The inmates thought retreat cut off, and, panic-stricken, endeavored to escape by the windows. Mrs. Cook jumped from the third floor rear window into the yard, and was almost instantly killed. Her husband followed her. He also jumped from the same rear window, and was so badly injured that he will probably die. Catherine Mahoney, a servant for the Cook family, was seriously injured, as were a number of others.

OZŒNA.

Ozœna is the professional or technical name given to an advanced form of catarrh in which ulceration has eaten through the membrane lining of the nose to the cartilage of the bone. Any case of catarra may end in ozœna, but it most frequently occurs in those who are naturally scrofulous. The discharge taks place through the nostrils or through the throat, and is generally of a yellowish or greenish-yellow color, frequently tinged with blood, and almost always attended by an offensive smell. In the language of Dr. Wood, of Philadelphia, "The disease is one of the most obdurate and disagreeable which the physician has to encounter. In bad cases the breath of the patient becomes so revolting as to isolate him from society, and render him an object of distrust even to himself."

In some instances pieces of bone become separated and slough off, leaving deep, unhealthy ulcers, which secrete a bloody matter, and are extremely difficult to heal.

After ozœna has continued some time the sense of smell becomes impaired and often lost.

Deafness is one of the most common consequences and results from its extension through the eustachian tube to the internal ear.

Pains in the head and over the frontal sinuses, impairing memory, and even insanity frequently springs from its extension to the brain.

The great danger, however, because the most common, is that it will extend downward and affect the lungs. In most cases of pulmonary disease catarrh is present to some degree, and in many instances it causes a large share of the patient's discomfort,

Besides these grave consequences, all of which are liable to spring from scrofulous catarrh of ozœna, there are others which, if less dangerous, are sufficiently unpleasant. It occasions great unhappiness to thousands of both sexes by isolating them and preventing their settlement in life. An offensive running from the nose, with foul breath, is about as great a calamity as can befall young people. Every disease of this kind can be cured by our new system of practice.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing can do with the same success.

The very best reference from those already cured.

Kohler & Frohling Tract

If you will Take Time to Examine the Sketch Below

AND SEE JUST WHERE IT IS LOCATED,

You will find it to be CLOSE INSIDE, with all the conveniences and advantages of living in the city. White within easy walking distance of all the central and leading points, it is accommodated by TWO STREET CAR LINES. Is under ELECTRIC LIGHT.

WATER has been piped to every lot. Streets are being graded, graveled, curbed and cement sidewalked on official grades, to be finally accepted by the city and sprinkled thereafter, thus making it, when done, the MOST COMPLETELY FINISHED TRACT ever offered in Los Angeles.

Special Inducements Offered to Immediate Builders.

It fronts on two of the great coming thoroughfares of the city, viz: SEVENTH ST., the greatest cross-artery of the town, and CENTRAL AVE., destined soon to be our most accessible and grandest drive, leading south through Vernondale and the richest horticultural portion of Los Angeles county.

In this section the greatest margins of the advance are yet to be and surely will come. More general improvements inaugurated and on foot in this direction than any other portion of the city. This ground, for healthfulness and comfort, is excelled by none. All things duly considered, it is undoubtedly the cheapest property offered in this market to-day. WILL COST YOU NOTHING to investigate and judge intelligently for yourself, as I will be pleased to convey you to the property and show you its merits at all hours.
